

"Cheer, Cheer for 'ol Wink High," the varsity girls sing the victory song after a roaring defeat over Buena Vista.

Senior Jessica Martinez sets the ball while floor captain Sami Jones watches in anticipation.

Sophomore Stephanie Maddux groans as she slides across the floor while senior captains Angie Adams and Joy Dawn Stewart try not to lose their balance.

The girls do their victory yell at the end of the game.

Senior Lorena Rios bumps the ball over the net.

Senior captain Joy Dawn Stewart dinks the ball over while senior floor captain Sami Jones and senior Jessica Martinez watch.

Winning . . . With Class

This winning attitude earned the girls an 18-4 pre-district record and a 4-0 district championship. "The most difficult thing the girls had to overcome was themselves. They learned that they were their own worst enemies," Smith said.

One highlight of the year was defeating Grandfalls FOUR times. Another was how well their unity enabled them to work together as a team.

"These young ladies have come a long way in a short amount of time. They have learned to believe in themselves and their program," said Smith.
