

Jumping For That Ball!

According to Coach Terry Hill, "The junior high basketball boys had a great 1991-92 season." The eighth grade team had a record of 5-1 and tied with Rankin for first in the district. The seventh grade team had a record of 4-2 and placed second in the district behind Rankin.

Team captain for the eighth grade team was Duncan Hamm. High pointers for the year were Robert Rios and Josh Haynes. The players with the most rebounds were Jason Berra and Josh Haynes.

Team captain for the seventh grade team was Calvin Baker. Baker was also the high point player for the season. The player with the most rebounds was Jason Berra.

Coach Terry Hill said, "Both teams had good seasons. These players have bright futures in athletics and I hope to see them playing throughout their jr. high and high school years."

Team members Duncan Hamm, Buck Jones, and Clifford Milligan look on as Josh Haynes makes another basket.

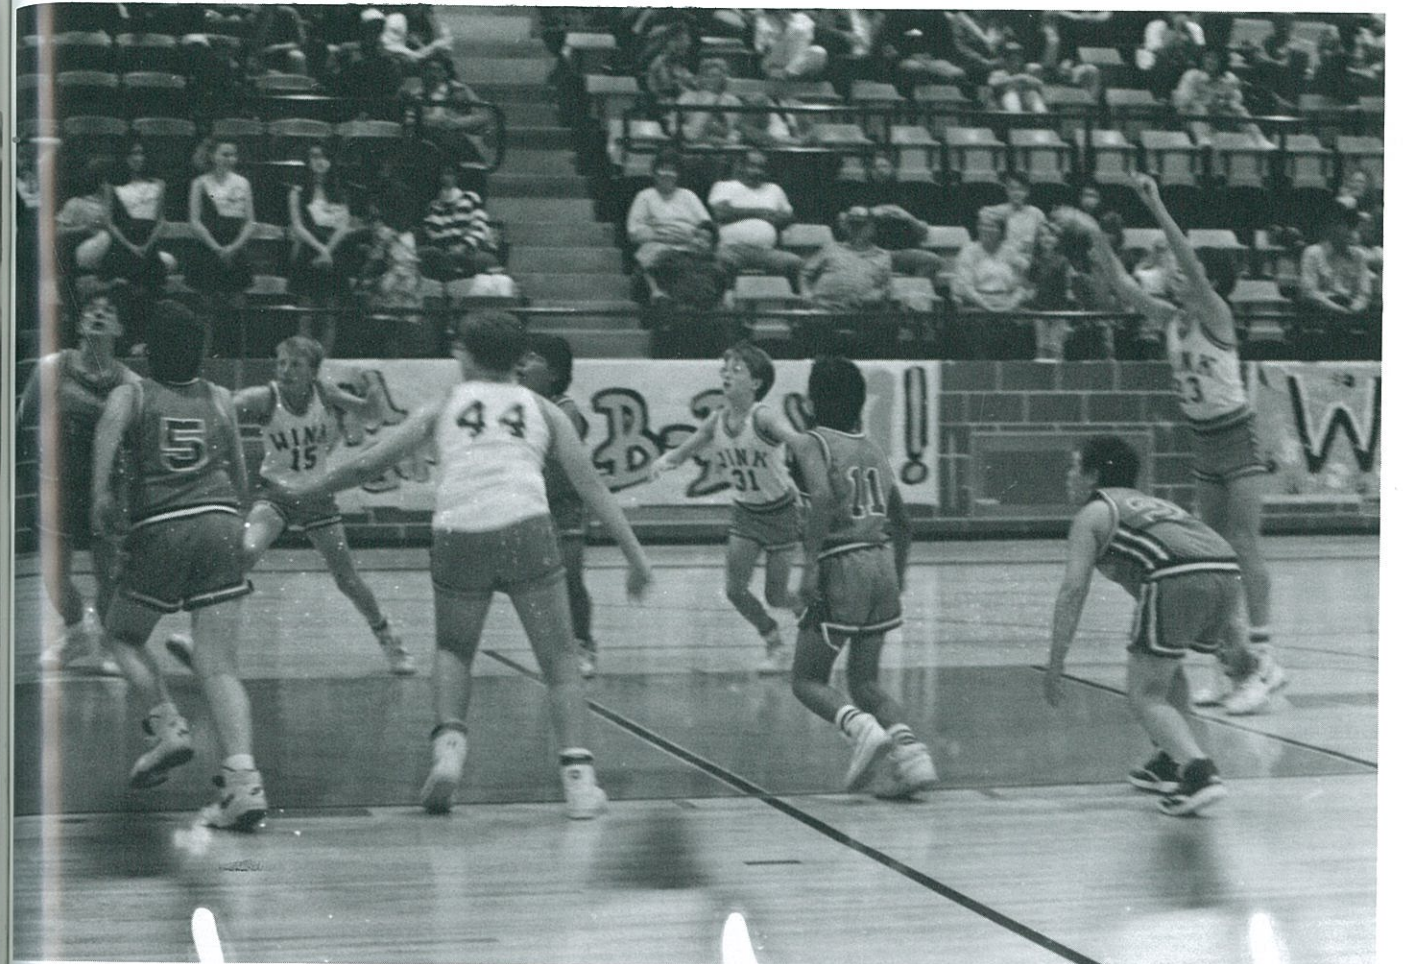

Duncan Hamm dribbles the ball while making his way down the court.
