

The two monks, Mark Zeigler and Frankie Warner, discuss their part in the pilgrimage with Friar Shae Scott and Jerry Moya, who plays the Franklin.

Prioress Ana Miranda and the second nuns, Sondra Hoopingarner and Marcie Sledge, take time to strike a pose before the pilgrimage into Miss Vernor's class.

CANTERBURY TALES

Seniors dress for pilgrimage to study Chaucer

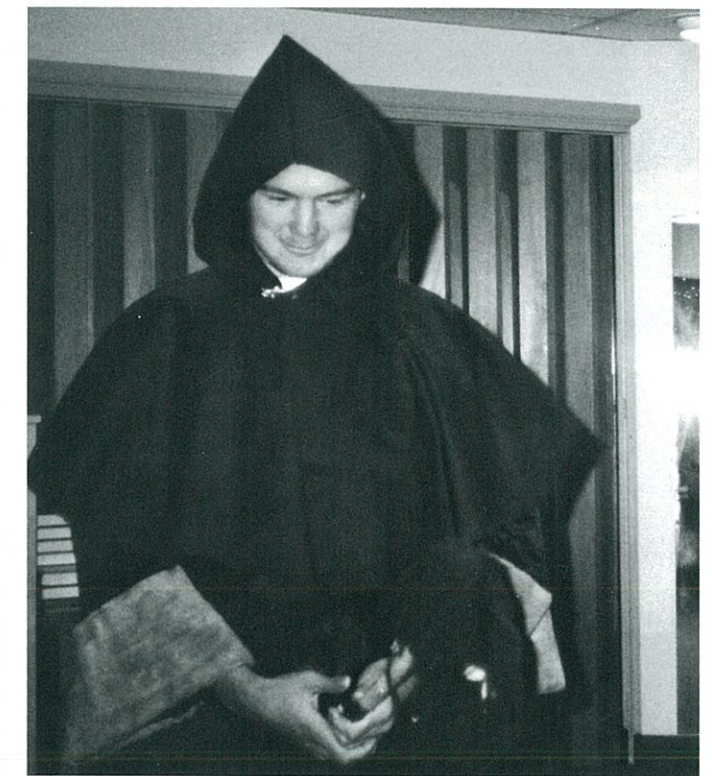

Seniors in Miss Chrissie Ethridge's second period English class scurried around town looking for bits and pieces to complete their costumes as each senior dressed up as different characters from the Canterbury Tales. Dressed in their unusual garb, they set out to travel to the "Shrine of Willy the Wildcat." While on the pilgrimage Miss Ethridge provided food and drinks for the seniors and the seventh graders who selected the best costume. Melissa Hawkins won best costume. She was dressed as a Yeomen, Robin Hood. The prize she won was a pizza and coke from the Pizza Hut.

Yolanda Rincon, portraying the Wife of Bath, shows off her costume for seventh graders.

Janda Northcutt, as the Pardoner, prepares for the senior English project in the girls' restroom.

Bill Mohler, who plays the Miller in the Canterbury Tales, plays his bagpipes.

Frankie Warner, as the Monk, gallups around the room showing off his fast horse.
