

Ashley Robertson, Sally Carrillo, Geta Wilson, Jeffrey Watts, and J.J. Lopez practice their hula-hooping at the band banquet.

Sharon Gonzales is so happy that her number was called to win a poster at the band banquet.

Senior Bill Mohler was the recipient of this year's "Greatest Wildcat" award presented at the Lions Club Banquet in May.

Lucy Valenzuela and Carlos Lopez read prophecies at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Banquets Honor Student Success, Achievement

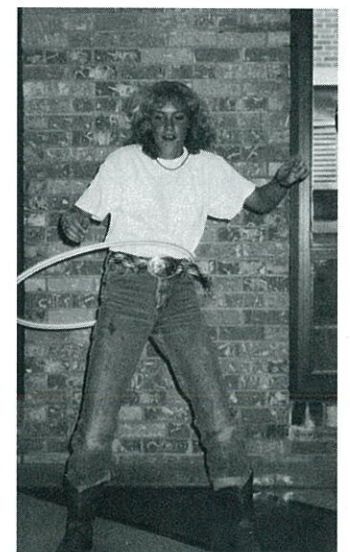

Back to the 50's for the Cool Cat Band, climbing the Stairway to Heaven at the Junior-Senior Banquet, and a student recognition banquet hosted by Wink's Lions Club honored students for their accomplishments. Students, parents, and community members enjoyed socializing and recognizing this year's awards and highlights.

The cafeteria was transformed into a drive-in for the 50's theme band banquet sponsored by the Baad Cat Booster Club. Entertainment included a hula hoop contest, best-dressed and look-alike awards, and singing with the karaoke machine.

Juniors, seniors, and sponsors spent the afternoon before the prom turning the cafeteria into a silver and black paradise for the banquet.

A special video of football highlights topped off the Lions Banquet after awards were given to athletes and academic participants.

Ashley Robertson and Merrick Brown wait for the Lions Club Banquet to start.

Debbie Thomas hula-hoops at the band banquet.

Frank Kelton is awarded "Most Dependable" by band director Tom Burns.