

Slamming It

"I liked Sanderson's game because I got in my first dunk."

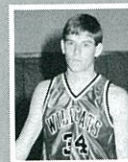

Carlton Gillette

"I was very excited about us going to the play-offs."

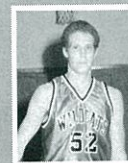

Wayne Gunn

"This was a good year. I'm looking forward to next year."

T. Gabe Loftin

"We have lots of talent and proved it by going to the play-offs."

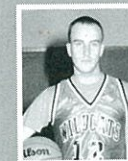

J. J. McVay

"I liked the Sanderson game because I made lots of 3-pointers."

Shae Scott

"When we won our first game, I knew we'd go far."

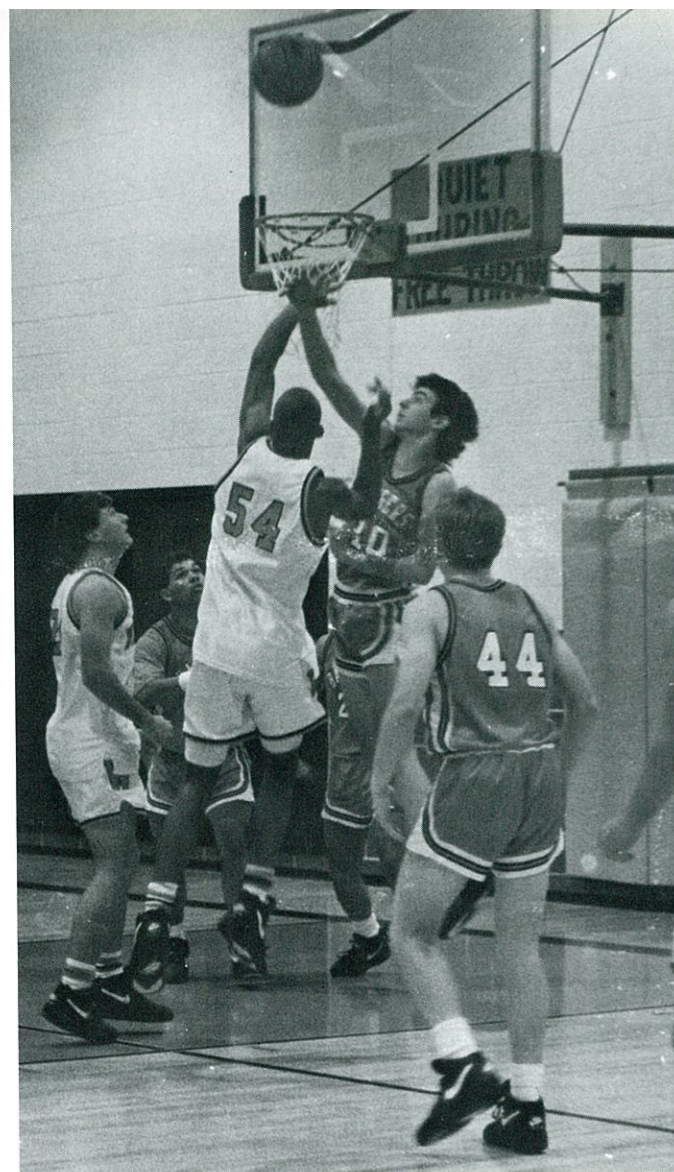

Jerry Thomas

An 18-10 overall record and a district mark of 4-2 led the Wildcats to a second place in district, advancing the team to the area play-off game with Plains at Odessa College. The game ended in a heart-breaking 54-59 loss in the last 29 seconds.

The Wildcats hadn't made the play-offs since 1988, but warmed up early in the season and were undefeated in district except for losses to Rankin. The team had set a goal to win 16 games, and they were proud of themselves for the hard work and dedication they put into meeting their goal.

First team All-District honors went to post Carlton Gillette, forward Shae Scott, and post Jeffrey Watts. Junior post J.J. McVay and forward Mark Zeigler were named honorable mention.

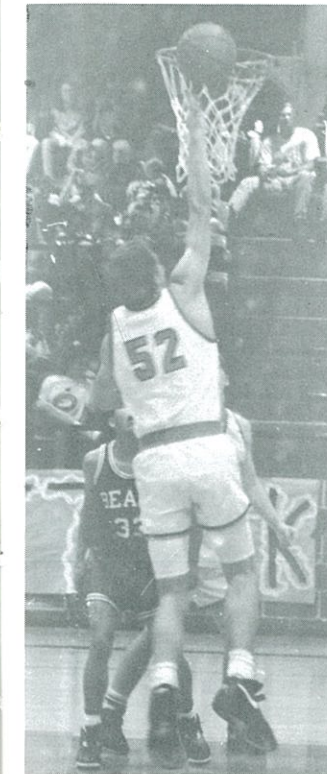

Carlton Gillette goes up for two points in a home game against McCamey early in the season.

Wildcats Advance to Play-offs

In a long, hard game against Midland J.J. McVay shoots for another two points.

Coach Mike Brown shakes Mark Zeigler's hand and tells him he did a good job on the play.

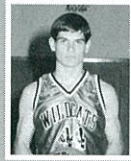

Mark Zeigler, Jeffrey Watts, and Tony Williams play keep-away from the Rankin Devils.

Stephen Tidwell

"We played well against others making us better."

Jeffrey Watts

"Our goal this year was to win 16 games and we did that."

Mark Zeigler

"Having doubt, we had a great and super year."

Jhenisa Barnett

"This was great and exciting, I had a great time."
