

Say "Fore"

This year golfers had a good year in the final tournament. They played in Fort Stockton where they placed between fifteenth and seventeenth out of thirty-five schools. They also played in tournaments in Wink and in Rankin.

Coach Gene Zeigler said, "I would like to see more people come out for golf who are not already involved in other activities."

Freshman Jhenisa Barnett said, "I love to play golf, and it's a good way to get a tan."

"The best thing about golf is getting out of school; it sure wasn't the winning," said junior Michael Hinchliffe.

Junior Stephen Tidwell said, "Getting out of school and participating with a bunch of different people was great."

Junior LaCosta Stanley said, "I like golf because it's a fun sport and I enjoy playing."

The golf team for 1992-93 school year included: Michael Hinchliffe, Stephen Tidwell, LaCosta Stanley, Coach Gene Zeigler. Not pictured: Jhenisa Barnett.

Junior LaCosta Stanley, junior Michael Hinchliffe, and freshman Jhenisa Barnett aim for the bleachers and try not to hit the old field house with practice swings.

Juniors Michael Hinchliffe and Stephen Tidwell discuss their plans for the next tournament.

ORGANIZATIONS