

The Baad Cat Band

From Wildcat Land..... Enough Said!

Winning a sweepstakes trophy in April by earning I's in concert and sightreading was the final highlight of the year.

A jazz band during sixth period was a new class, and with other musicians, was introduced to fans to bring more spirit into the varsity basketball games.

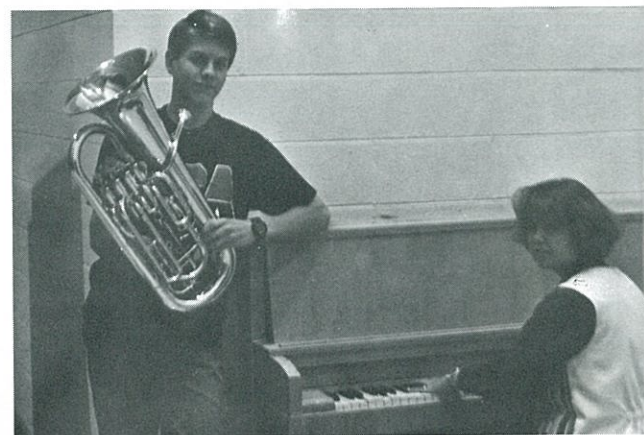

Young musicians who made All-Region band this year in the symphonic band were Freddy Tavarez, Amber Loftin, and Shawn Matthews. Those who qualified for the second band were Marilyn Briones, Thomas Gonzales, James Thomas, Ben Haring, and Casey Carlton.

This year sophomore Merrick Brown made it to Sundown for Area where he placed ninth out of twelve. He qualified by making All-Region at try-outs at Crane in January.

Band director Tom Burns took five ensembles and seven solo contestants to Monahans to compete in UIL in February. Soloist Wendy Mosier got a division 1 for her saxophone solo and John Adams also got a division 1 for his baritone solo.

A new twist was added to the spring concert when former band directors were brought in as guest conductors to direct marches.

Eight graders Stephen Treadwell, Tina Wilson, and Sonya Ruiz participate in the Hula Hoop contest at their first band banquet.

Sophomore Merrick Brown practices his trombone playing for Area try-outs in Sundown. He made All-Region band at Crane in January.
