

Never Enough Knowledge

From the basics of reading, writing, and arithmetic, to technical skills learned in typing, computers, and auto mechanics, students were never without the opportunity to expand their learning.

Freshman Damian Martinez tries to be a substitute teacher. He gains the students' attention by pointing to the problems on the overhead projector.

Sophomores John Adams and Merrick Brown search their copies of Death of a Salesman for information while Jeffrey Watts gets into the conversation in Ms. Ethridge's GT English class.
