

Seventh grader Shawn Matthews attempts to pass the ball down the court.

Eighth grader Calvin Baker rushes to steal the ball from the opponent.

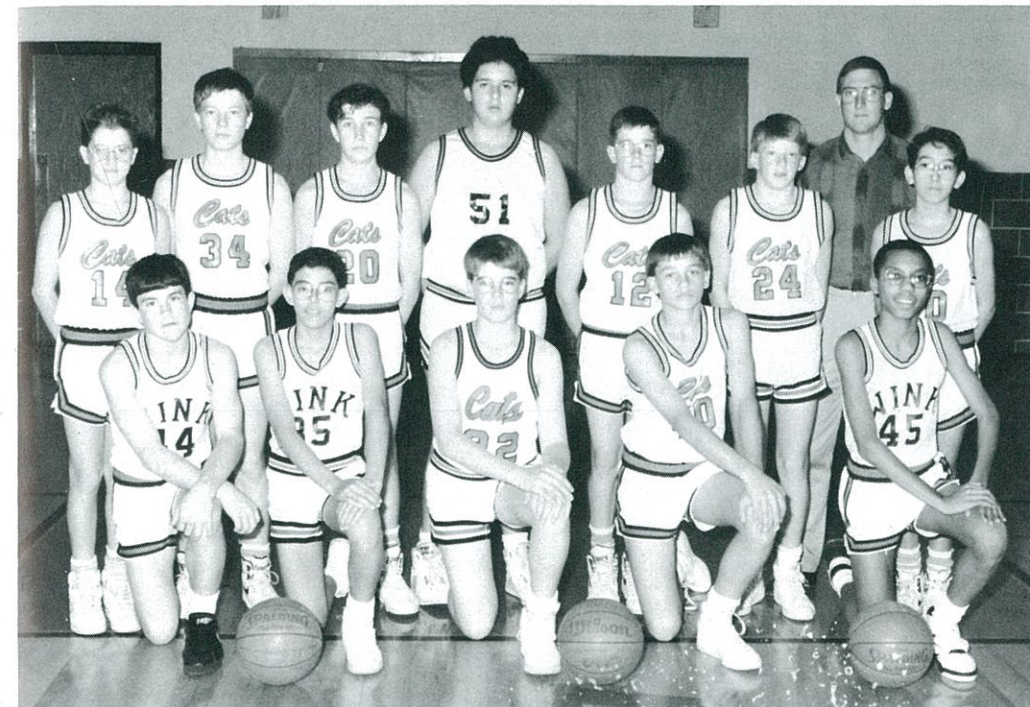

Junior high cheerleaders build that spirit up at the Homecoming pep rally.

Junior high cheerleaders: Desiree Bickle, Joni Clark, Suzanne Kelton, and Misty Lukins.

Never Enough Orange And Black

Junior high basketball: Brandon Thompson, Jody Soltero, Pat Gray, Alan Watts, Shawn Matthews, Sheldon Claborn, Jeremy Sparks, Eric Hawkins, Rudy Underwood, Calvin Baker, Brandon Jones, Coach Eddie Parker, and Michael Moya.

Junior high basketball teams ended their seasons with the boys' record of 6-15 and the girls' record of 4-9. High point scorers were Shawn Matthews with 86 points and Brandon Thompson with 24 points. The eighth grade team had a record of 5-3. The high point scorers were Calvin Baker with 100 points and Jason Berta with 70 points. The teams ended their season by defeating Grandfalls 34-16 and Buena Vista 44-16.

The girls' junior high basketball team finished their season with four wins and nine losses. The high point scorers for the year were seventh graders Desiree Bickle, Amber Loftin and eighth grader Debbie Thomas.

Junior high cheerleaders showed a lot of spirit throughout the year in many ways. They brought fans to their feet and cheered the boys on at games. They participated at the Homecoming pep rally, bringing their talents to help out the varsity cheerleaders bring the varsity football boys to victory.

Junior high basketball: Misty Lukins, Sonia Lopez, Dana Hollander, Teddi Barnett, Amanda Haring, Marilyn Briones, Mandy Horner, Marcie Wilkinson, Desiree Bickle, Debbie Thomas, Amber Loftin, and Mickey Underwood.

Seventh grader Mickey Underwood dribbles down court against Sander-son.