

UIL Contestants Sweep District

UIL competitors proved that they were the leaders of the pack, because all together they scored 260 points making them the 1993 Junior High District Champs in UIL.

In the seventh grade competition Joni Clark and Marcie Wilkinson placed third and sixth in oral reading; Alan Watts and Desiree Bickle were first and third in number sense; Greg Smith and Watts placed first and third in the science; Bickle placed fifth in spelling and was one point off of being in fourth place; Shawn Matthews and Wilkinson placed first and fifth in impromptu speaking. In the maps, graphs, and charts all three of the competitors placed. They were Smith in second, Amber Loftin in third, and Wilkinson in fourth; and in the listening Loftin placed first.

In the eighth grade competition Mandi Horner placed first in readywriting; Eric Hoopingarner, Casey Carlton, and Clifford Wilkinson placed first, third, and fourth in the science; Hoopingarner also placed second in spelling and was one point off of being in first. In calculator Carlton and Rudy Underwood placed third and sixth; Hoopingarner placed first in dictionary skills; Hoopingarner and Horner were first and second in maps, graphs, and charts; and Hoopingarner got fourth in listening.

District competitors first row: Joni Clark, Greg Smith, Clifford Wilkinson, Casey Carlton. Second Row: Desiree Bickle, Teddi Barnett, Marcie Wilkinson, Suzanne Kelton. Third row: Pat Gray, Alan Watts, Shawn Matthews, Rudy Underwood, and Eric Hoopingarner.

Science and math district qualifiers front row: Greg Smith, Clifford Wilkinson, and Casey Carlton. Back row: Alan Watts, Desiree Bickle, Rudy Underwood, and Eric Hoopingarner.

Speaking qualifiers: Joni Clark, Suzanne Kelton, Marcie Wilkinson, and Shawn Matthews.

Spelling qualifiers: Desiree Bickle and Eric Hoopingarner.

ADMINISTRATION