

Willy the Wildcat and senior Stephanie Maddux elicit the crowd's support as they cheer on the Wildcats.

Homecoming Queen senior Brande Scott and her court, seniors Lucy Valenzuela and Stephanie Maddux, know the Wildcats are #1 as they stand for the school song.

Royalty Reigns Over Homecoming '93

Senior Brande Scott expresses excitement over the flowers given to her by Board President Gregg Treadwell. She is being escorted by senior team captain Micha Rountree.

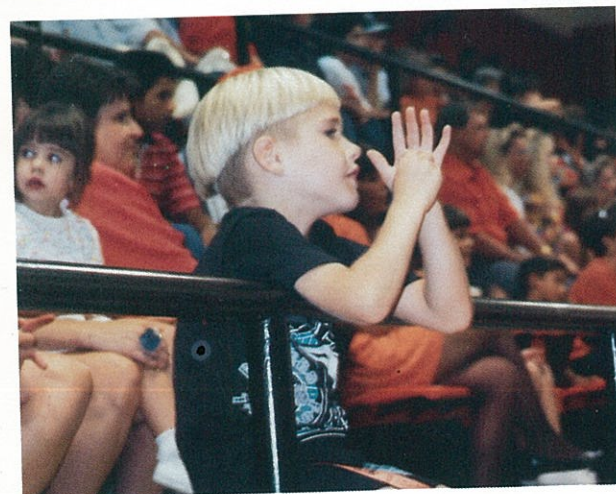

Homecoming '93 was alive with spirit from 'Jersey Day' to 'Twin Day' to 'Tie up the Panther Day.' A night pep rally helped boost up the parents and community members. Varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders also got in the spirit by having a black light pep rally, a big change from the past years. Another pep rally was held Friday afternoon for the student body.

Queen nominees for the 1993-93 season were seniors Lucy Valenzuela, Brande Scott, and Stephanie Maddux, escorted by senior football captains Shane Haynes, Micha Rountree, and Mike Miranda.

A Homecoming game win over the Jal Panthers, 43-12, was the first victory over the Panthers for the Cats since 1986.

The Student Council hosted a sock hop in the new gym after the win over the Panthers.

First grader Nicholas Roundtree shows his Wildcat spirit at the Homecoming pep rally.

Eighth grader Shawn Matthews and Sophomore J.J. Lopez keep the beat in the percussion section during the halftime show, 'Celebrate the Music of the American West from Stage and Screen.'

Senior Wildcats Micha Rountree, Mike Miranda, Shane Haynes, Tommy Smithhart, Tony Williams, Peter Lara, T. Gabe Loftin, and Cody Baker turn their attention to the encouraging words of Coach Sam Scott's pep rally speech.

Homecoming queen nominee senior Stephanie Maddux smiles for the camera after being escorted to her throne by senior team captain Mike Miranda.

Homecoming queen nominee senior Lucy Valenzuela shows off her beautiful mum. Her escort is senior team captain Shane Haynes.

