

District UIL Literary Champs

Junior high UIL competitors walked away with the the district literary championship for the second year in a row winning by almost one hundred points over Rankin, their nearest opponent. A total of twenty medals were won!

Winning first place in their events were Alan Watts, earth science; Joni Clark, oral reading; Shawn Matthews, impromptu speaking; Greg Smith, maps, graphs and charts; Marcie Wilkinson, ready writing; and Amber Robertson, dictionary skills.

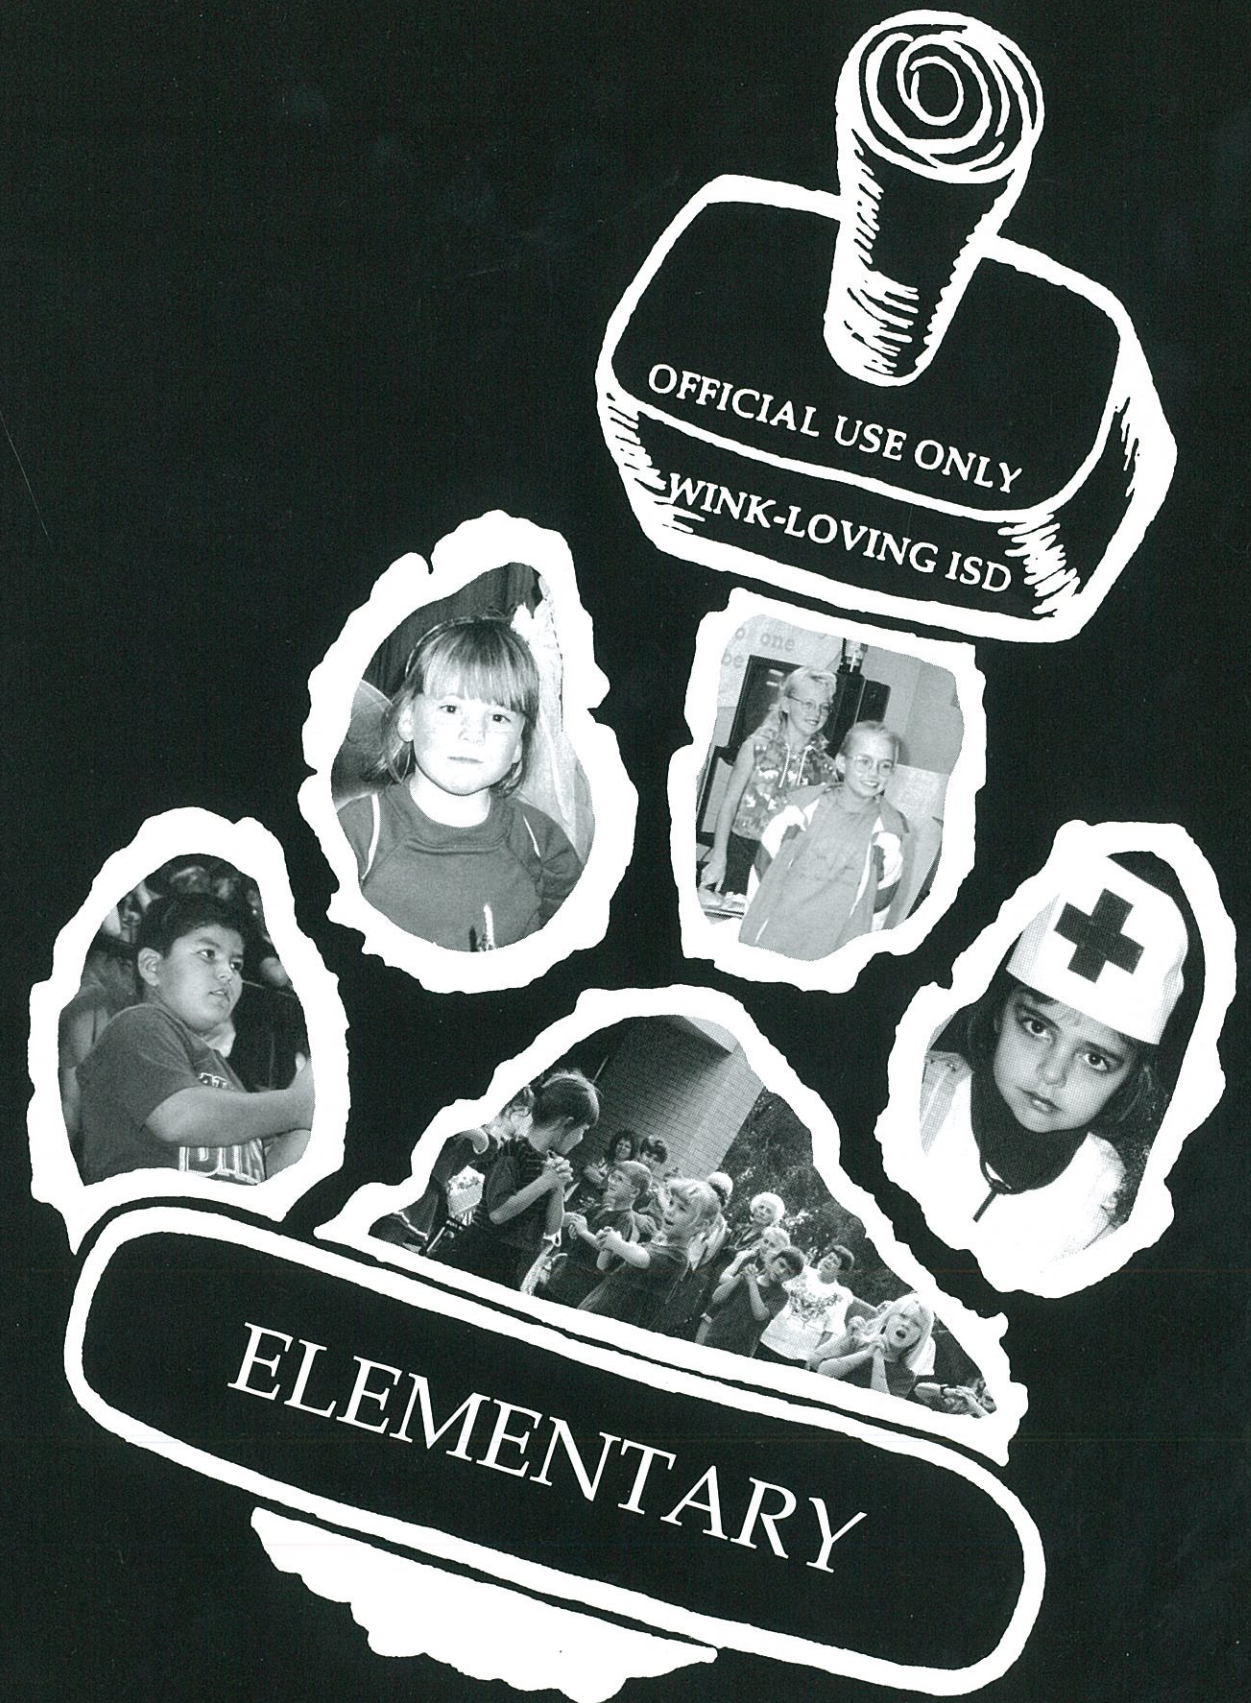

Second place winners included Desiree Bickle, dictionary skills; Greg Smith, earth science; Geanna Baker, maps, graphs and charts; Jess Anne Fernandes, oral reading and dictionary skills; Marcie Wilkinson, spelling; Erin Wolf, life science; and Amber Loftin, listening skills.

Also competing in the district meet were Mandi Haring, Toni Carlton, Omar Armendariz, Dustin Loftin, Jennifer McGehee, and Suzanne Kelton.

94 Junior High UIL

Winning bronze medals for third place were Alan Watts, number sense; Timothy Martin, maps, graphs and charts; Desiree Bickle, spelling; Teddi Barnett, maps, graphs and charts; and Geanna Baker, dictionary skills.

Elementary 95