

The End and the Beginning

Geta Wilson and Kody Dossey are more ready than ever for graduation after picking up their caps and gowns.

Sophomore Jennifer Tinkler and freshman Pat Gray enjoyed the awards banquet and are ready to become leaders at W.H.S.

1995-96 student council officers, Desiree Bickle(seated), Jhenisa Barnett, Alan Watts, and Ashley Robertson make plans for the coming year.

Patrick McKinley joined the senior class at mid-year.

DeShawn Johnson, Armando Ramirez, and Matt Peaugh counted the days to graduation on May 19.

The student council invited members of the student body to help them plant a tree on Arbor Day.

Fifth grade students Sam Haring, Shanna Dennis, Logan Risley, Amanda Taylor, Crystal Smith, Ryan Thomas, Casey McCallister, John Henderson and Jeremy Cross spend time in the library with Mrs. Jane Benham.

The spring semester of the '94-95 school year kept pace with the winning ways that began in the fall. The boys basketball team advanced to the play-offs, UIL students not only won district at all three levels (elementary, junior high, and high school), but high school students also brought home the regional trophy and gold medals from state.

As the class of '95 made plans for life after Wink High School, the underclassmen prepared for the coming year. Athletic teams conditioned themselves in off-season work-outs, newly elected cheerleaders held fund raisers, and the '95-96 student council planned for summer workshops.

The desire to remain on top and even exceed this year's accomplishments could be seen and felt. The students of W.I.L.S.D. will continue their pursuit of excellence with NO FEAR!
