

A Little Break Helps

Juniors Mike Hayes and Eddie Mendoza enjoy an unseasonably warm winter's day during the morning break.

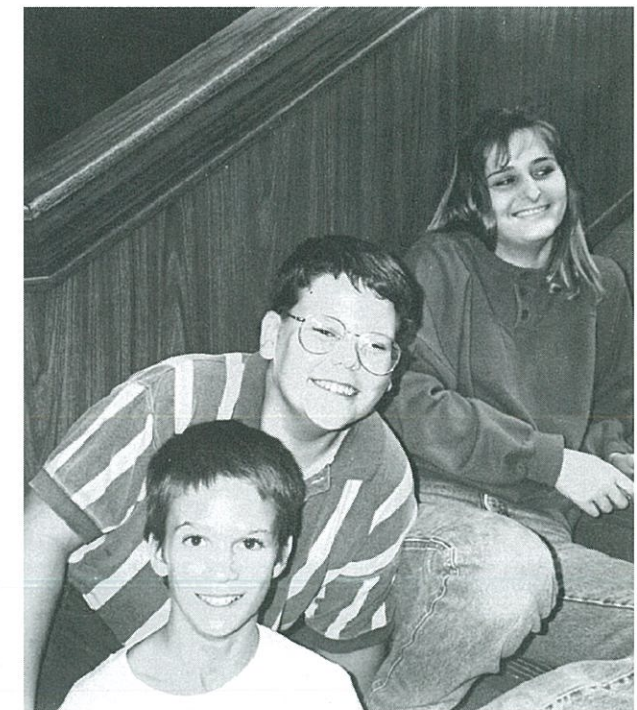

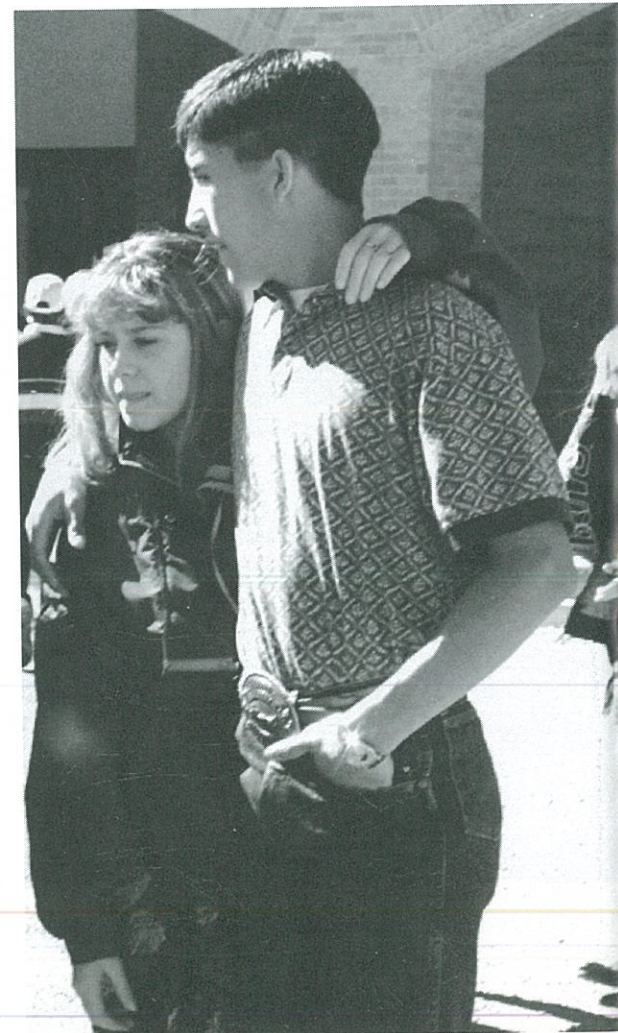

Theresa Jacquez and Jeffrey Watts have time for some friendly conversation.

Even under the stress of a U.I.L. practice meet at Ft. Stockton, eighth graders Erin Wolf, Jess Anne Fernandes, and Jennifer McGehee laughed and had fun.

Robert Rios, Kelly Simpson, Geanna Baker, and Tim Lara take time to talk over the days events during the lunch break.

Seventh graders Gary McKee, Logan Risley, and junior Deidra Roundtree show age has little to do with friendship.

Juniors Ashley Robertson and Sally Carrillo are not always dressed as twins, but they are often seen on campus and around town together.
