

Jr. High Boys Have Exciting Season

The junior high boys basketball teams under the leadership of Coach Roger Martin played some close games and overall had a good year. The boys learned that team work is a key ingredient to success on the basketball court. The experience gained during the 1994-95 will be invaluable in the years to come.

Seventh grader Jared Green throws up a basket as referee, Mr. Frank Casteel watches in the background.

Sam Haring's shooting style made him a leader on the court.

Eighth graders Doro Mendoza and Tim Martin could be counted on throughout the season for their good free-throw shooting.

Seventh Grade: Back Row - Logan Risley, Sam Haring, Jared Green, Brandon Rowe, John Allen Henderson, and Jason Mayo. Front - Patrick Voyles, Jeremy Cross, Casey Mc Callister, Gary McKee, and Noah Armendariz.

Eighth Grade: Back - Isaac Ojeda, Tim Martin, Shawn Glenn, Doro Mendoza, Coby Slaughter. Front - Rocky Carroll, Adrian Martinez, Justin Hamm, and Michael Berta.