

Boys Take Second at District

The 1995 Junior High boys track team competed in four meets and finished with a first place trophy at the Wink Meet and two fourth place finishes. The team ended on an up beat by taking second place at the district meet.

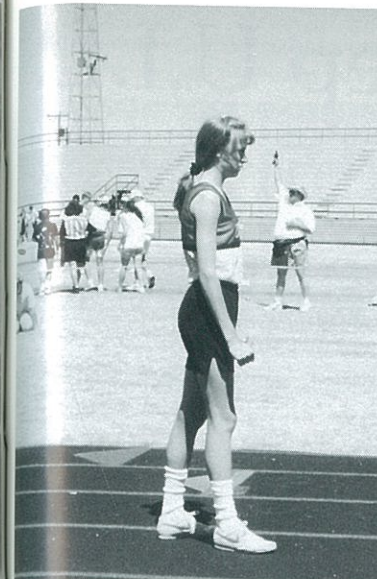

Coach Roger Martin said, "All the boys gave exceptional effort and all of them improved as the year progressed."

Dustin Loftin finishes his race strong during the district meet.

Rocky Carroll runs full steam for the finish line.

Jason Mayo, Adrian Hernandez, Doro Mendoza, and Rocky Carroll take a breather during the district track meet.

Doro Mendoza competed in and won the high jump in the district meet.

Girls Are District Champs

The junior high girls entered four track meets and won all of them including district, in convincing fashion. Several marks set by the team could have won high school meets. Jess Anne Fernandes jumped for 33' 10" in the triple jump and had a 4' 10" high jump. Casie Slaughter posted a 51.41 in the 300 meter hurdles, and Geanna Baker had a 17.5 in the 100 meter hurdles. The 1600 relay team of Jess Anne Fernandes, Casie Slaughter, Jennifer Hawkins and Michelle Harbin had a 4:28 at the district meet.

JessAnne Fernandes prepares for her race in the Wink track meet.

Toni Carlton turns on the speed in the final meters of the 800.

Casie Slaughter clears a hurdle on her way to winning the 300 meter hurdles.

Jessica Jones gets ready for the gun in the 200.

Eighth grade boys: back-Doro Mendoza, Shawn Glenn, Jason Ridgeway, and Adrian Hernandez; front-Dustin Loftin, Isaac Ojeda, Rocky Carroll, and Tim Martin.

Seventh grade boys: Casey McCallister, Sam Haring, Jarred Green, Jason Mayo, and Jeremy Cross.

Eighth grade girls: back-Geanna Baker, Michelle Harbin, Jess Anne Fernandes, Casie Slaughter, and Erin Wolf; front-Brandy Frie, and Toni Carlton.

Seventh grade girls: back-Misty Warren, Jennifer Hawkins, Amanda Taylor, Marci McCallister, Mandi McCallister, Shane Jones, Mindy Wilkinson, April Underwood, and Jessica Jones; front-Shannon Garratt, Maria Villalpando, Ryan Thomas, and Crystal Smith.