

Kelli Benham lets the audience know that early day explorers had a 'ruff' time during the elementary performance of The Adventure of Lewis and Clark.

Fifth Grade U.I.L. contestants: Back- Kelli Benham (1st-listening skills, number sense, dictionary skills, music memory; 2nd-ready writing and spelling), Misty Golden (1st-music memory), Kelli Gunn (1st-music memory; 3rd-spelling, 4th-ready writing and dictionary, 5th-listening), Bear Haring (1st-music memory and maps, graphs, charts), Dessie York (1st-oral reading, music memory; 3rd-number sense; 4th-spelling, 5th-dictionary); Front-Jodie Graham, Kendra Casteel (2nd-number sense), Amanda Santos, Ella Fernandes (1st-music memory), Lindsay Graham (1st-music memory).

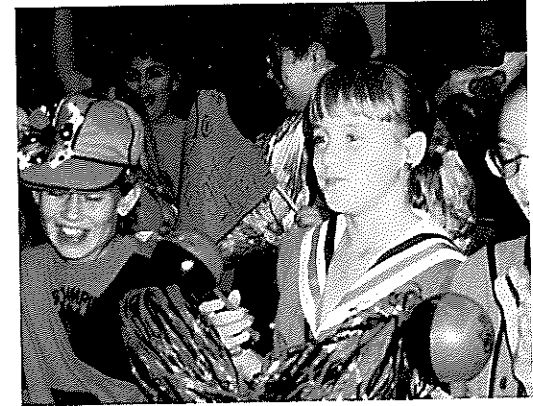

Fifth Graders Focus on Excellence

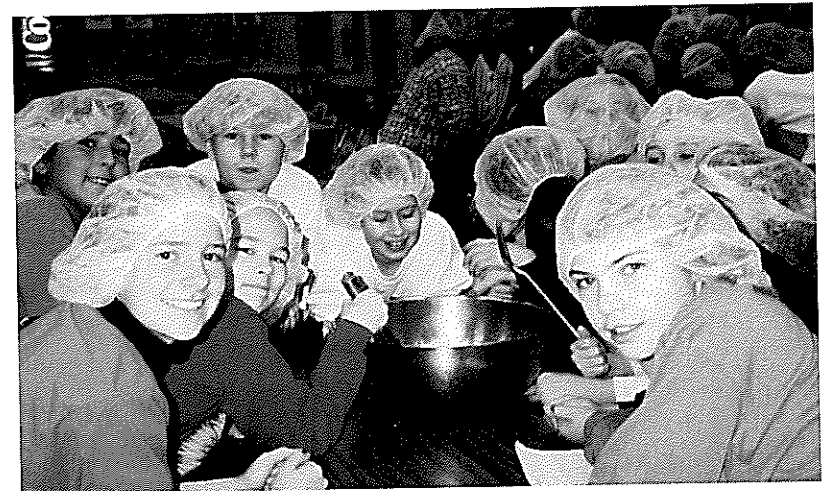

Dessie York exhibits a confident stage presence during The Adventures of Lewis and Clark. This poise helped her win first in district oral reading competition later in the year.

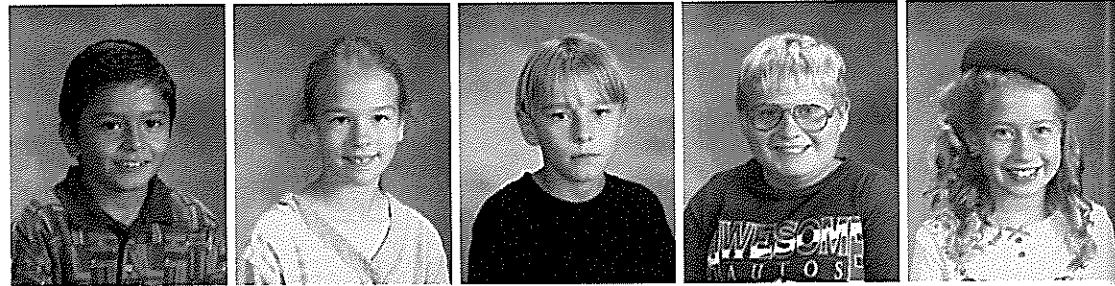

Kendra Casteel and Jody Graham are always ready to make some noise for the Wildcats.

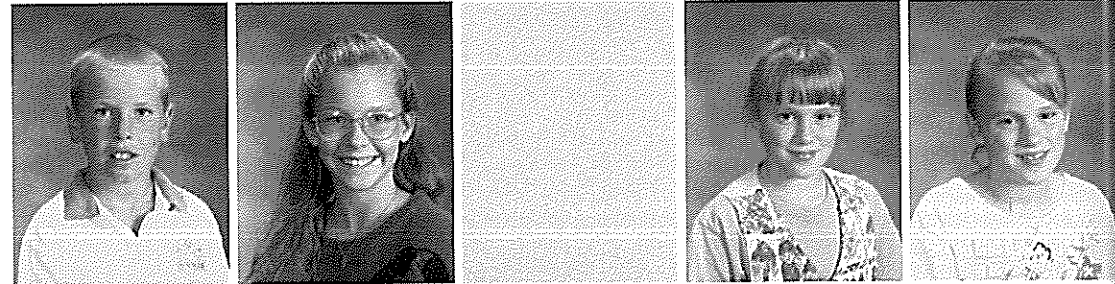

Ms. Pam Thompson's science class was even more fun than usual on the day she and the fifth graders ventured to the cafeteria to bake bread.
