

A Year of Winning Leads to . . .

Athletic and Academic Awards Banquet
hosted by the Wink Lions Club recognizes students for their accomplishments in extracurricular activities.

Members of the One-Act Play cast that were selected for all-star cast honors by the competition judge were introduced. They were Jhenisa Barnett, Melissa Vaught, Shawn Matthews, Amanda Gonzales, Brandon Jones, Amber Connell, and Jennifer Tinkler.

Coach Sam Scott announced Josh Haynes as the offensive back of the year in football and Coach Gene Zeigler presents the plaque. Josh became the fourth straight Wildcat to be named to the Texas State Coaches Association's all-star team.

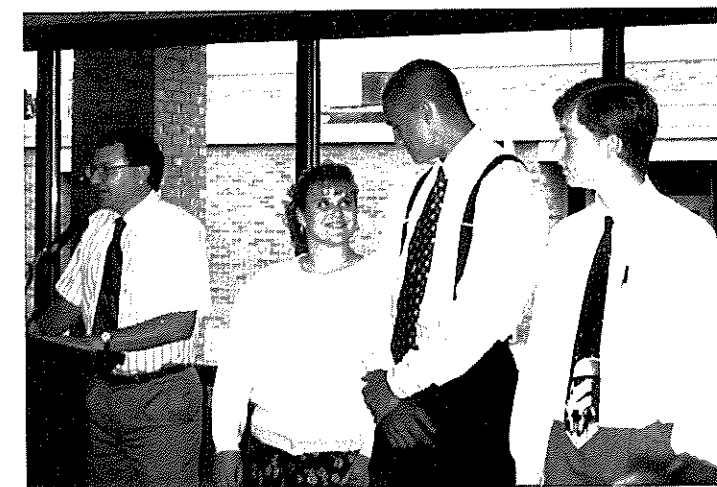

Buck Jones was named Defensive Back of the Year based on his 174 tackles and four interceptions. He was also recognized for his track accomplishments that included being the Class IA pole vaulting champion.

Freshman Jess Anne Fernandes was recognized by Coach Stacy Garner for her track qualifications to regional and state. She was also named the Offensive Player of the Year in basketball.

The 110% Award went to senior quarterback Duncan Hamm. During his two years as leader of the offensive unit, the Wildcats scored 40 passing touchdowns. Duncan along with Jason Moya were also named the Most Valuable Players of the basketball team.

UIL math events coach, Mr. Tim Seymore, introduces members of his number sense, calculator, and mathematics teams. All three teams won district and advanced to regional. Shown are junior Jennifer Tinkler, and sophomores Alan Watts and Greg Smith.

Freshmen Casie Slaughter and Michelle Harbin were named co-Defensive Players of the Year in basketball. They displayed never-give-up hustle during their rookie year.

Basketball captain Sally Carrillo was recognized for the invaluable leadership qualities she brought to the court.

Senior Ashley Robertson was named both Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year in volleyball based on her outstanding all-district performances.
