

Junior High Cats Right on Target

Coach Roger Martin's boys basketball teams got valuable experience on the way to having winning seasons. Tournaments were probably the highlights, especially for the seventh grade team, as they came in third at the Buena Vista Tournament and brought home the first place trophy from the Monahans 'B' Tournament. The eighth graders lost in the first game of each of these competitions but went on to win their other tournament games.

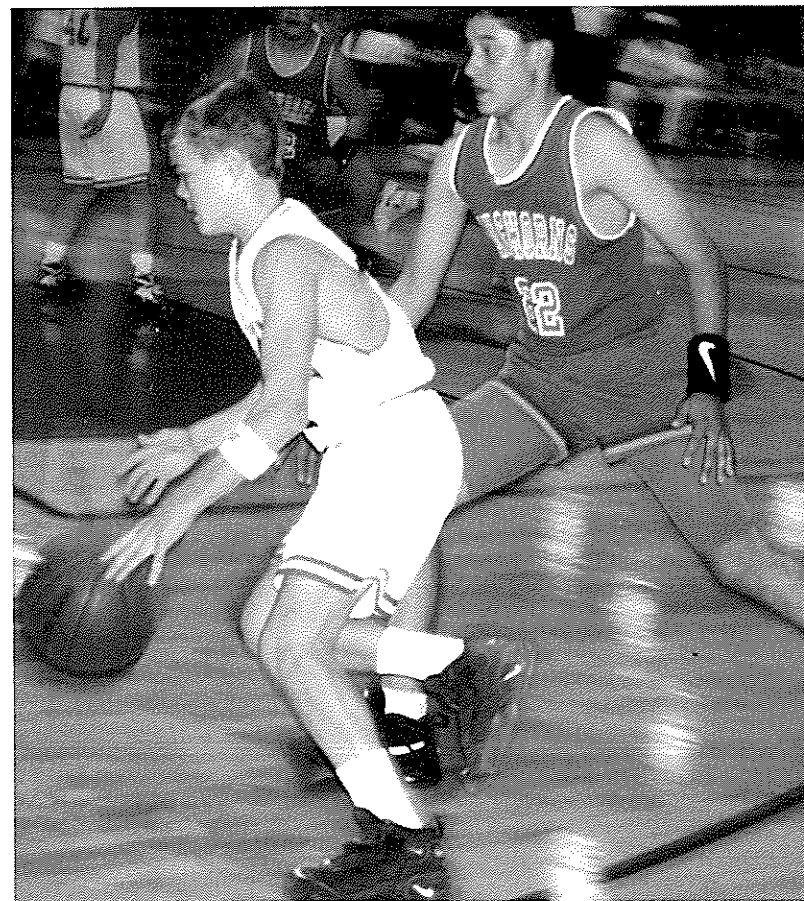

Jared Green and Sam Haring are ready to help seventh grade ball handler Ben McGehee as he works his way around the court.

Seventh Grade Team: back - W.E. Tinkler, Ben McGehee, Clayton Hawkins, Eathan Hamm, Jeffrey Casteel, and Weldon Thompson; middle - Marco Enriquez, Joey Tucker, Derrick York, Timothy Gonzales, and Adan Rey; front - Larry Hernandez, Joel Freeman, Kevin Benham, Royce Barnett, and Justin Payne.

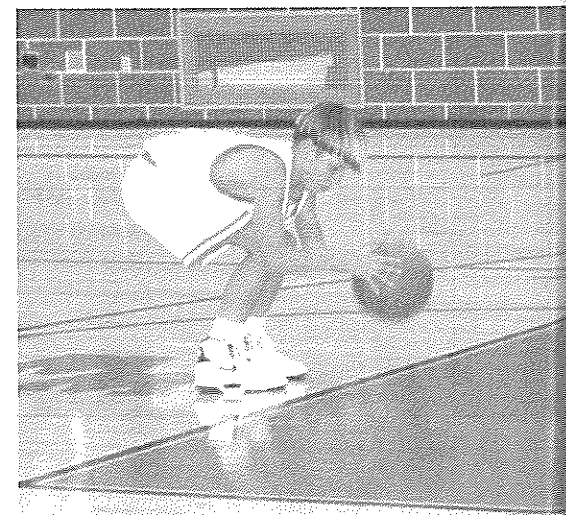

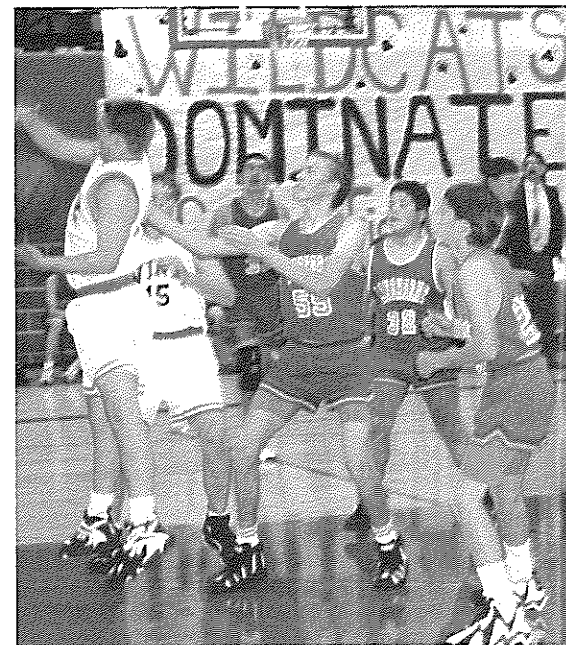

Eighth Grade Team: Casey Wade, Sam Haring, Jared Green, John Allen Henderson, Patrick Voyles, and Casey McCallister.

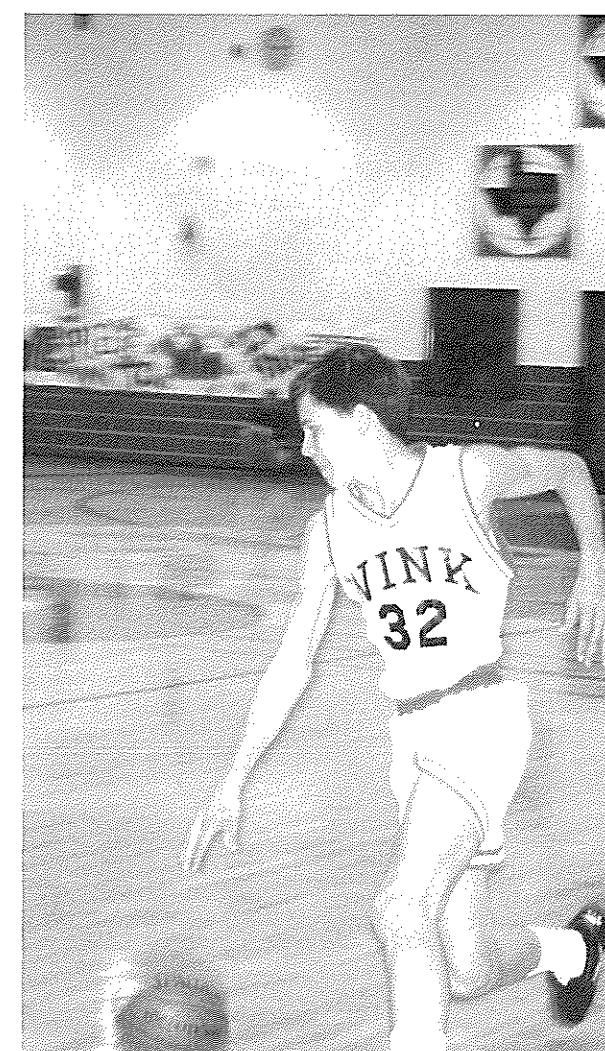

Eighth grader Casey McCallister blows past a Longhorn defender.

Eighth grader John Allen Henderson grabs an enormous rebound in a game with the Buena Vista Longhorns.

Seventh grader Eathan Hamm prepares to shoot a technical foul shot.

Seventh grader Weldon Thompson shows he is not afraid to fight for possession of the ball.

Eighth grader Jared Green dribbles downcourt during a fastbreak opportunity.