

Young Lady Cats Keep Winning

The Junior High Lady Cats jumped right into basketball from volleyball and continued with their winning ways. The seventh graders, who played only seven games by themselves, posted a record of 4-3. These games were mostly played at tournaments against teams from 3A and 4A schools.

The eighth graders finished the season with a record of 8-5. After two successful years in junior high basketball, these girls are ready to contribute their considerable talents to the high school program.

Mandi McCallister, Jennifer Hawkins and Jessica Jones move in to defend the basket.

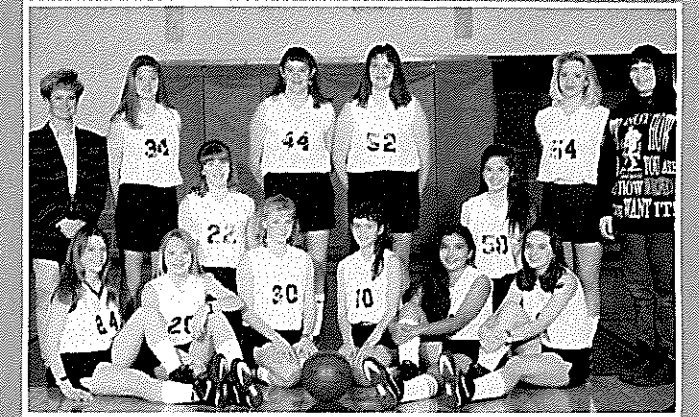

Maria Villapando searches the court to find an open teammate to avoid a defensive trap.

Mindy Wilkinson shoots for the basket as Jessica Jones blocks out her opponent and awaits a possible rebound.

Ryan Thomas uses her speed and athletic ability to quickly drive down court.
