

Time for Some Fun and Recognition

As the year winds down students, coaches, teachers, parents and friends gather to relive great moments of the year as awards are presented for individual hard work and achievement.

Junior band members Suzanne Kelton and Shawn Matthews enjoy stepping back to the 50's and sharing a Coke float at the annual Band Banquet hosted by the Band Boosters.

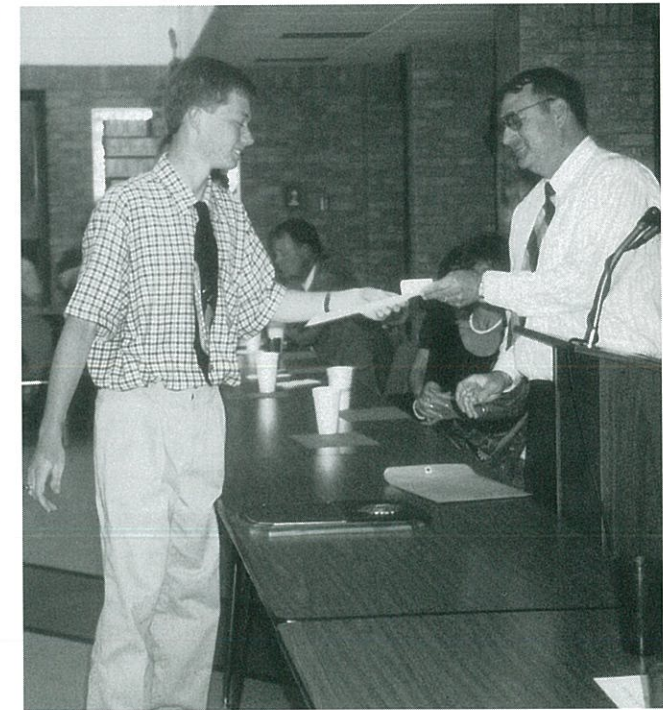

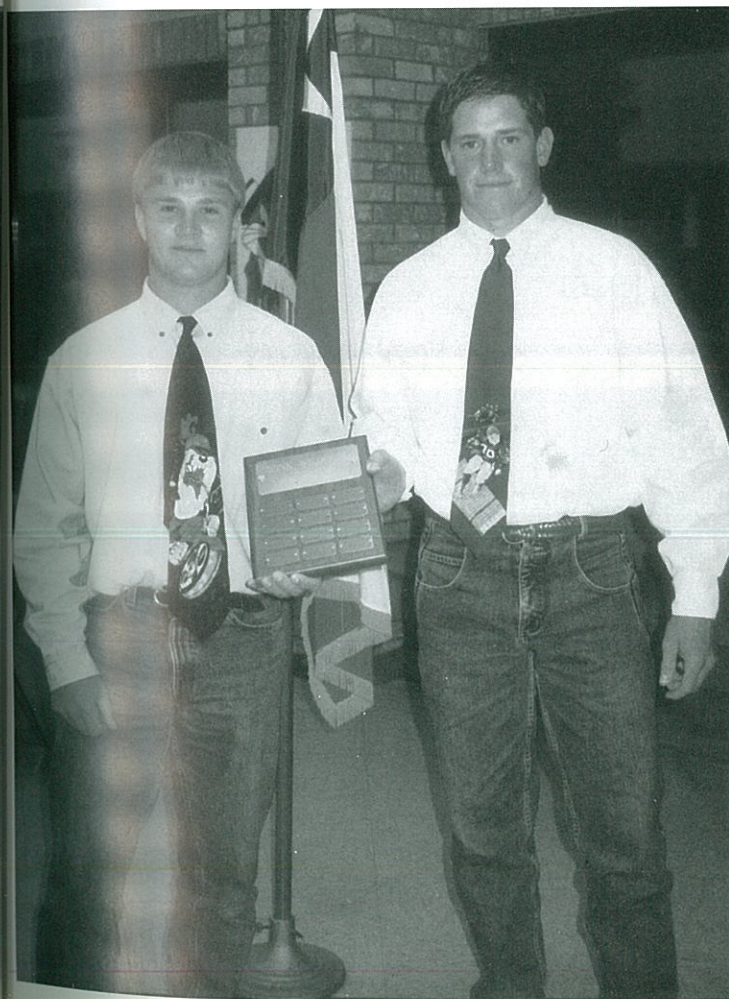

Varsity volleyball coach Danna Flatt is surrounded by the best of the best. Receiving individual recognition for their contributions to the Lady Cat volleyball team are Geanna Baker, outstanding defensive player; Twila McKee, Pride Inside Award; Jess Anne Fernandes and Casie Slaughter co-offensive player of the year.

Seniors Marilyn Briones and Stephen Treadwell reign over the Band Banquet as Band Queen and King.

The bright smiles of band director Mr. Tom Burns and band members Amanda Henderson, Amber Loftin, Casie Slaughter and Jennifer Tinkler let everyone know the 50's style Band Banquet is a huge success.

Junior Greg Smith accepts an award from his UIL science coach Mr. Gary Wolf. Greg's accomplishments for the year included a first place finish at the Regional UIL Literary Meet which earned him a trip to State in May.

Seniors Brad Scott and Calvin Baker proudly share one of the Wink Wildcat Football Team's highest honors. They are co-winners of the .110% Award.
