

Band Colors the Fall with Spirit

Freshmen band members Amanda Taylor and Ryan Thomas make last minute adjustments to their hats before the band marches onto the field at half-time.

Senior tuba player, Ben Haring, participates in a stand tune meant to fire up the Wildcats.

Flag corps member Twila McKee waits patiently to take the field for a Baad Cat Band half-time performance.

Featured musicians, Stephen Treadwell and Greg Smith, perform at Odessa's Ratliff Stadium during the UIL Marching Band Contest. The Baad Cat Band received a Division I rating for the fifth consecutive year.

Lisa Claborn, Twila McKee, Tina Wilson, and Casie Slaughter work their flags with precision at the marching band contest.

Eighth grade rookie band members Kevin Benham and Glen Milligan are partially responsible for moving the percussion equipment.

Baad Cat band members Shawn Matthews, Jared Green, and Melissa Garcia contribute much spirit and great performances at the football pep rallies.

Baad Cat Band percussionists, Doro Mendoza, Tim Martin, Ben McGehee, April Underwood, and Jared Green, concentrate on the music directed by Shawn Matthews at the UIL marching contest at Ratliff Stadium.

Parent support helps keep the band going strong. Senior Tina Wilson displays her gratitude to her parents Mary and Lee Wilson at Parent Appreciation Night.
