Nobility Obligates

An annual project of the National Honor Society is the reading of Christmas stories to elementary students just before the Christmas break. Junior Misty Lukins enjoys being part of this special event.

National Honor Society Members: back-Greg Smith, Shawn Matthews, Alan Watts, Dustin Loftin and Jess Anne Fernandes; middle-Amanda Haring, Desiree Bickle, Amber Loftin, Michelle Harbin, Jennifer McGehee, Amber Robertson, Erin Wolf and Misty Lukins; front-Jennifer Tinkler, Tina Wilson, Amber Connell and Marilyn Briones

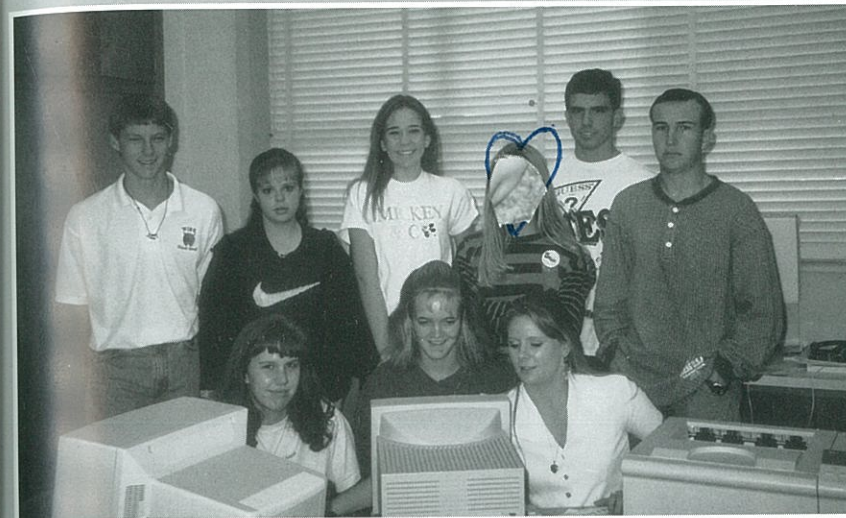

Senior members Amber Connel, Marylin Briones, Tina Wilson, and Jennifer Tinkler showed the leadership, character, service, and scholarship throughout their four years to earn their NHS patch.

Principal Danny Carrillo places an NHS collar on newly inducted sophomore, Dustin Loftin.

Putting the Pages Together

As all writers know, every work takes a lot of effort and last minute perfections. Senior Dana Hollander works hard to perfect her lay-out.

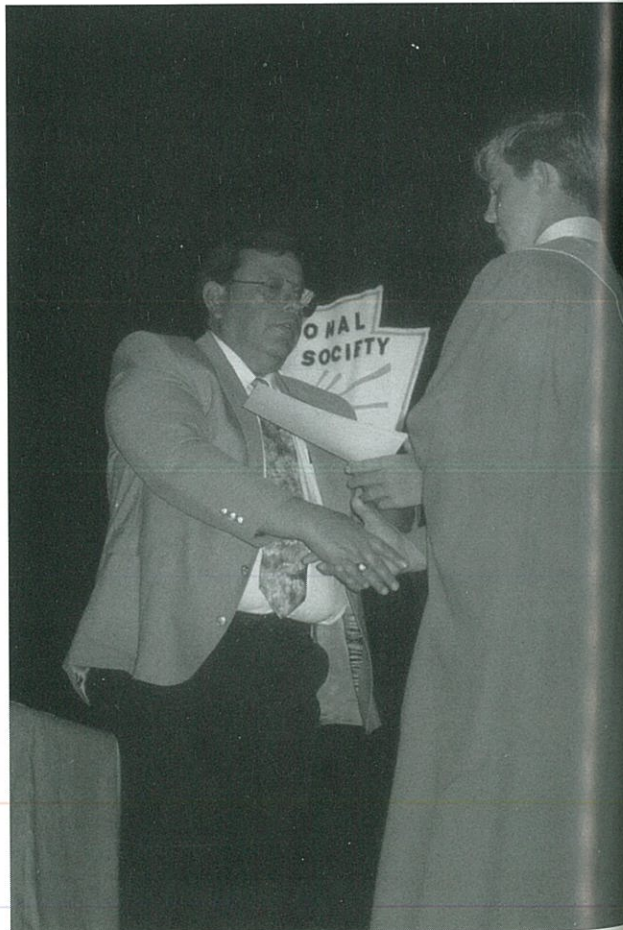

1997 Wildcat Staff: back- Stephen Treadwell, Dana Hollander, Amy Hawkins, Joni Clark, Jason Berta, Eric Hawkins; front-Misty Lukins, Twila McKee, and Libby Connell.

Yearbook production is a time consuming task that can be tedious and oftentimes nerve racking. The staff and I appreciate the help and contributions of the following who helped make our work easier.

~Cheryl Blair, yearbook adviser

- Shirley Bolf
- Barbara Dossey
- Kenneth Edwards
- Pam Thompson
- Oscar Valdez
- Wayne Henington Photography
- Winkler County News

Juniors Twila McKee and Libby Connell wait to start on another yearbook page while they listen intently to Mrs. Blair's instruction.
