

Spirit of the Seasons

Varsity and JV cheerleaders have hectic schedules all year. However, the Sunday afternoon and Thursday night practices, the many signs painted for the halls, and the preparation done for pep rallies pay off in a sports seasons of spirit. The JV squad had a short fall season due to the early merging of JV and varsity football teams but continued to support the Cats all year.

Friday evenings during the fall allow little time for sit-down meals, so junior Misty Lukins grabs a quick Frito pie moments before kick-off.

Michelle Harbin and Suzanne Kelton take a minute to do a little cheerleader bonding before a pep rally.

Even though cheerleading is not always considered a true athletic event by some, Erin Wolf realizes the importance of stretching before beginning a night of cheering.

Junior Desiree Bickle, in her second year as varsity cheerleader, urges the pep rally crowd to Stand Up for the Wildcats.

Tradition is a huge part of life at WHS, and sophomore Jess Anne Fernandes urges a pep rally to show the traditional Wildcat Spirit.
