

Sophomore Geanna Baker drives in the lane for a lay-up attempt.

Under Coach Swenson, members of varsity learned the true meaning of teamwork. Whether on the court, or on the sideline, each member is important. The team discusses strategy during a time-out, and April Tinkler, Angela Milligan, Desiree Bickle, Misty Lukins, Amanda Haring and Mickey Underwood cheer on their teammates while awaiting their turn to play.

Mandi McCallister, one of three freshmen to break onto the varsity squad, has no fear of putting up a basket for crucial points.

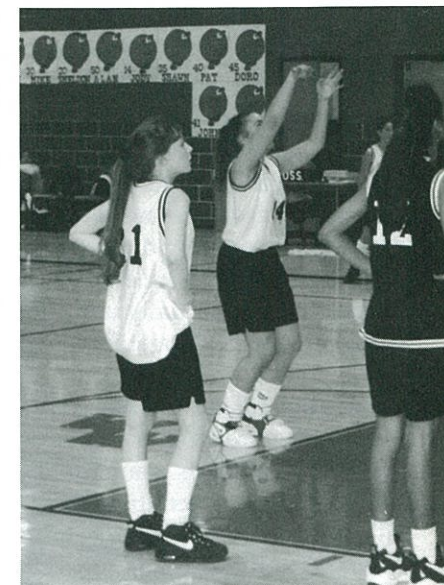

Varsity Team: standing - Amanda Henderson, manager, Amber Loftin, Mandi McCallister, Coach Phil Swenson, Jess Anne Fernandes, Jennifer Hawkins, and Michelle Harbin; kneeling - April Tinkler, Mickey Underwood, Angela Milligan, Desiree Bickle, Geanna Baker and Misty Lukins; front - Amanda Haring and Casie Slaughter

JV Team standing- Coach Danna Flatt, Shane Jones, Kenna Claborn, Marci McCallister, Suzanne Kelton, Erin Wolf, Coach Tim Seymore; kneeling- Angela Stevens, manager, Maria Villalpando, April Underwood, Misty Warren, Amber Robertson, Robin Worbois; sitting- Aaron Treadwell, Ryan Thomas, Lisa Claborn, and Jennifer McGehee

Sophomore Jennifer McGehee awaits teammate Erin Wolf's free throw that will add to the JV's lead in a district contest.

District JV Champs

The JV players are to be commended for their district co-championship. Even though their forces were weakened when players moved to the varsity team, the team stuck together and found the success unselfish teamwork can bring.

Freshmen Ryan Thomas and Shane Jones were key elements to the successful JV season. They could be counted to bring the ball quickly down the court to waiting teammates.