

Serving Up Success

Volleyball keeps early fall schedules hectic for junior high team members. The pressure of afternoon practice, weekly games, and week-end tournaments pays off in determination, organization, and success. The tough junior high program does just what it is supposed to do. It feeds the high school squad with well trained and conditioned athletes.

Eighth grader Jolee Hanna hopes for an ace as she makes a perfect toss on her serve.

Coach Paula Kay Lockhart gives last minute instructions to the team before they head for the court.

Seventh graders Keecha Carroll and Jamie Carman alertly wait for the opposition's serve.

Eighth grader Melissa Shackelford concentrates on passing to the setter for a good hit.

Seventh grader Marlayna Moore seems determined to ace the other team with her power serve.
