

Eighth Graders Dominate

For the seventh grade, basketball season provided the opportunity to learn the basics of the game and the importance of teamwork. For the large eighth grade team, it was a season to take command of the court and dominate opponents. Both the 8-A and 8-B teams found success, and the A team ended the season at 10-3 with a powerful win over a strong Fort Stockton team.

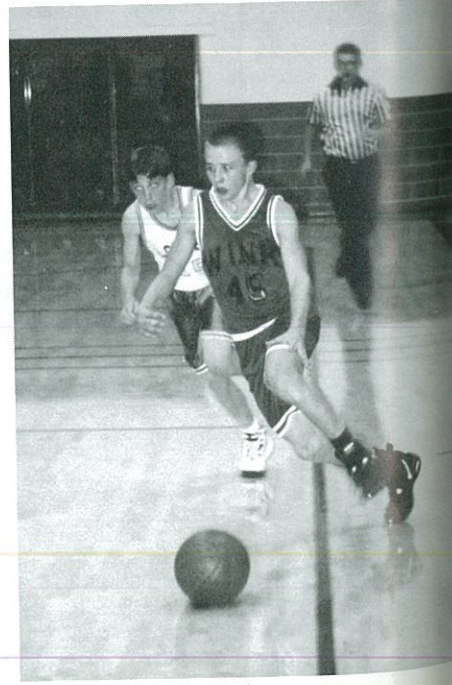

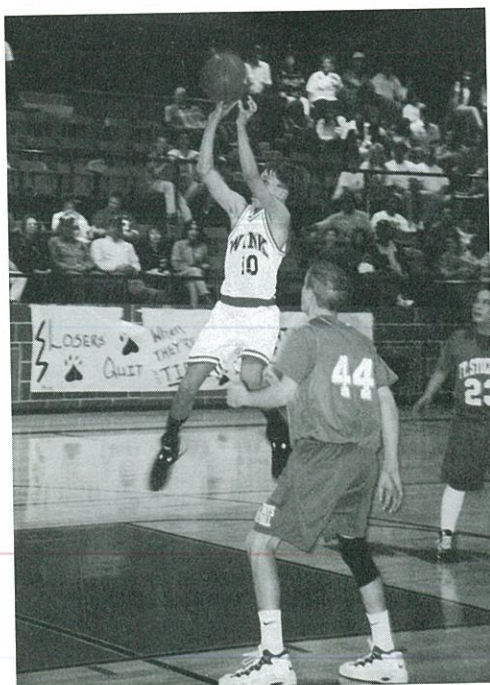

Eighth grader Marco Enriquez goes up and lays the ball in the goal despite a Fort Stockton defender.

Eighth grader Timothy Gonzales looks for help to avoid falling into a trap of Monahans defenders.

Eighth grader Eathan Hamm uses a strong vertical leap to get off a point-making shot.

Seventh grader Heath Morton takes the ball quickly down court for a Wink score.

8th Grade Team: back-Marco Enriquez, Lonnie Lovell, W.E. Tinkler, Swen Swenson, Weldon Thompson, Ben McGehee, Eathan Hamm and Jeffrey Casteel; front-Mario Domingues, Joey Tucker, Kevin Benham, Derrick York, Larry Hernandez, Clayton Hawkins and Timothy Gonzales

7th Grade Team: back-Jacob Harrison, Jerry Kennedy, Heath Morton and Chad Clark; front-Zachary Tomson, Derek Hill, Cody Garratt, David Gilbreath and Timothy Milligan.

Seventh graders Derek Hill, Heath Morton, Timothy Milligan and David Gilbreath get set to break for an in-bound pass.

Eighth grader Kevin Benham drives through a Monahans defense on his way to making two points.

Eighth grader Derrick York eyes the basket in preparation for a successful goal.

