

Boys Have the Numbers

Junior High Boys Track: Marco Enriquez, W.E. Tinkler, Eathan Hamm, Ben McGehee, Swen Swenson, Coy Millsap, Weldon Thompson, Glen Milligan, Robby Norred, Michael Renteria, Heath Morton and Chad Clark; front-Joey Tucker, Cody Garratt, Tim Milligan, Derek Hill, Derrick York, Clayton Hawkins, Kevin Benham, Randell Hill and Jacob Harrison

Eighth grader Glen Milligan takes his turn at high jump bar during the JH Wildcat Relays. Glen had a personal best jump of 5'4" at the Grandfalls Relay where he won first.

Eighth grader Ben McGehee is on his way to a first place finish in the 800 at the district track meet. Ben won the 800 at every meet in which he competed during the year, with his best time being 2:15.

Who needs quantity?

Girls Emphasize Quality

Though small in number, the junior high girls' track team had the heart to make a strong showing in each meet in which they competed. They placed second at the JH Wildcat Relay and third at Grandfalls and the district meet. To highlight the Wildcat Relay, the 800 and 1600 relay teams of Chelsea Shirley, Alicia Sparks, Donna Jones and Melissa Shackelford took first in both races. The team also had first place finishes from Aimee Williamson in the 800m run and Marlayna Moore in the 300 hurdles and the 1600 run.

Junior High Girls Track: back-Stephanie Cross, Jamie Carman, Mallory Bryan, Aimee Williamson, Melissa Shackelford and Alicia Sparks; front-Angela Tucker, Marlayna Moore and Abigail Azima.

Eighth grader Aimee Williamson takes off on a triple jump attempt at the JH Wildcat Relays. She placed third in the meet with a jump of 24'3".

Weldon Thompson takes first place in the district track in the 110 high hurdles with a time of 18.6.