

Winning first place at the district UIL Meet in Garden City are: Derrick York, spelling; Lonnie Lovell, mathematics, science and 8th grade listening skills; Jeffrey Casteel, 8th grade dictionary skills and oral reading; Kevin Benham, 8th grade number sense and calculator; Ashley Abila, 7th grade dictionary skills; and Kathie Shirey, 8th grade maps, graphs and charts.

Second Place district UIL finishers: Nydia Porras in impromotu speaking, W.E. Tinkler in 8th. grade dictionary skills, and Jeffrey Casteel in spelling.

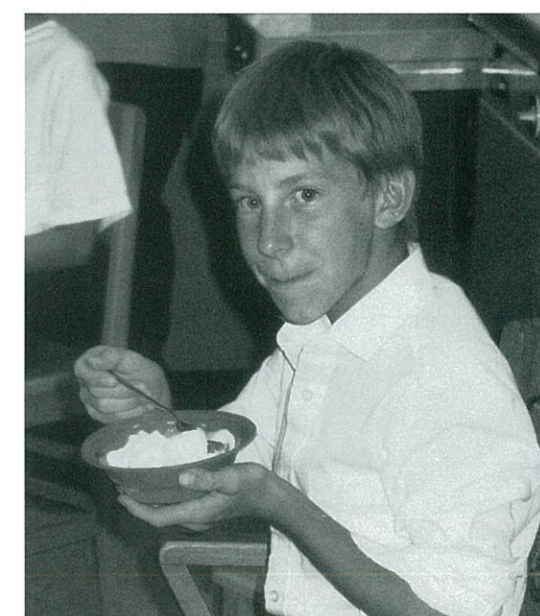

Third place district UIL winners: Abigail Azima, spelling, Dana McVay, oral reading and ready writing, Ashley Abila, number sense and Marlayna Moore, impromptu speaking.

Goin' All Out

Extra Effort Brings Home District Championship

JH UIL Participants: top-bottom (l-r)-Derrick York, Abigail Azima, Krystal Carrasco, Ben McGehee, Jeffrey Casteel, W.E. Tinkler, Nydia Porras, Lonnie Lovell, Kathie Shirey, Kevin Benham, Randell Hill, David Gilbreath, Tim Milligan, Zack Tomson, Derek Hill, Cody Garratt, Jacob Harrison, Charla Hash, Ashley Abila, Mallory Bryan, Marlayna Moore, Stephanie Cross, Britney Brooks, Dana McVay and Melissa Shackelford

In May, members of Mrs. Warren's home economics classes prepared a teacher's appreciation dinner hosted by Mr. Carrillo in honor of junior high and high school teachers and staff. Seventh graders including Stephanie Cross, Angela Tucker and Britney Brooks served the meal. Afterwards, as David Gilbreath will affirm, they got to feast on the leftovers.

JH Tennis Team: back- Clayton Hawkins, Joey Tucker, Glen Milligan, Jeffrey Castell, Derrick York and Coach Roger Martin; front-Kevin Benham, Derek Hill, Mallory Bryan, David Gilbreath and Randell Hill