

Pump it Up

The Junior High cheerleaders pumped up the spirit through out the year. These four girls cheered with true Wildcat spirit through two seperate games each time the Cats took their home field. Their encouragement and spirit payed off in leading the young Cats to many victories.

Krystal Carrasco does not allow an injured ankle to dampen her spirit as she gets into position for her next cheer.

Keecha Carroll and Marlayna Moore show their enthusiasm and will the junior high Cats to another home victory.
