

Senior Twila McKee, a first team all-district selection, averaged 10.4 hits per game during district.

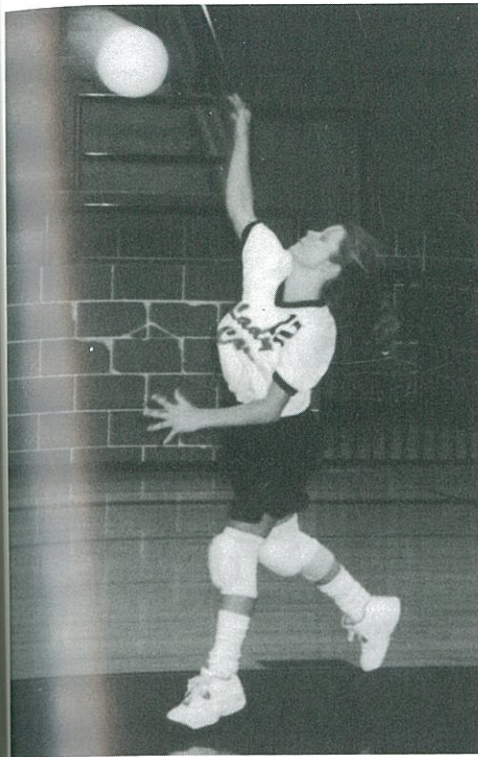

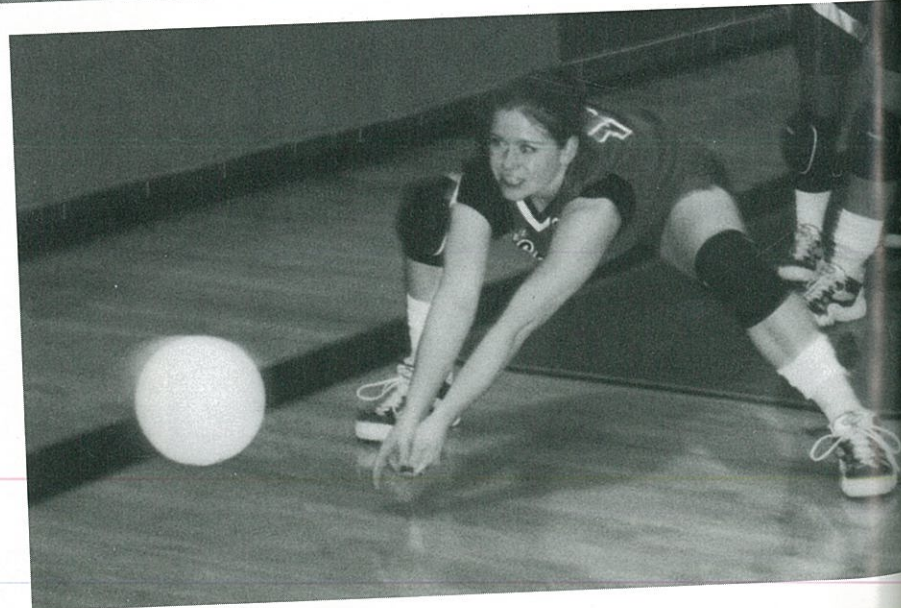

Mandi McCallister finished district competition with a 92.8 blocking percentage. This strong effort made her a second team all-district selection.

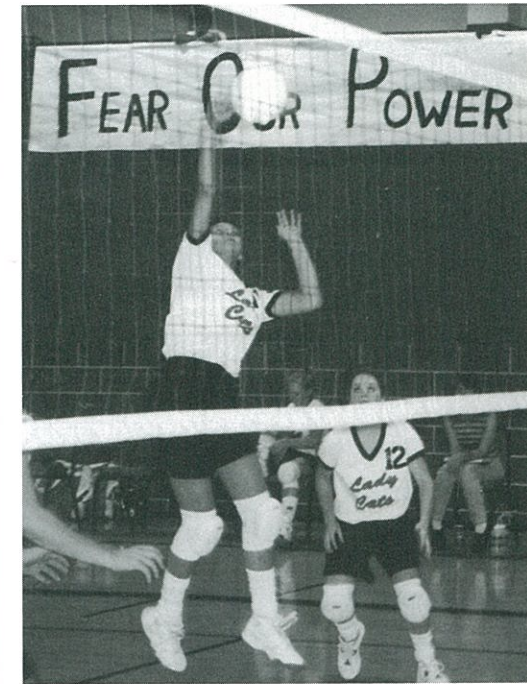

Junior Erin Wolf who received second team all-district honors uses her great passing form on a hard driven serve.

Geanna Baker had some big shoes to fill as she moved into the position held by 1996 All-State setter Casie Slaughter after Casie fell to an injury. The fact that Geanna was named District Offensive Player of the Year tells how she handled this responsibility.

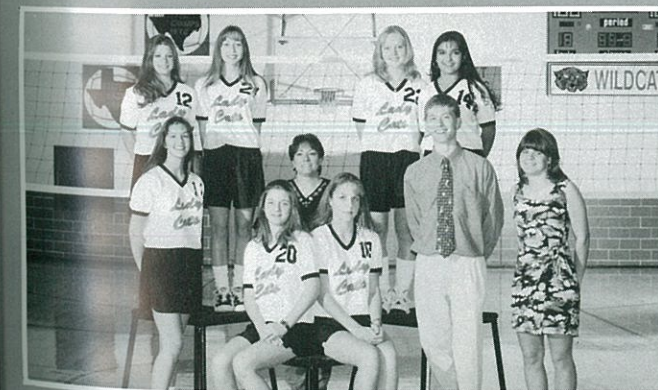

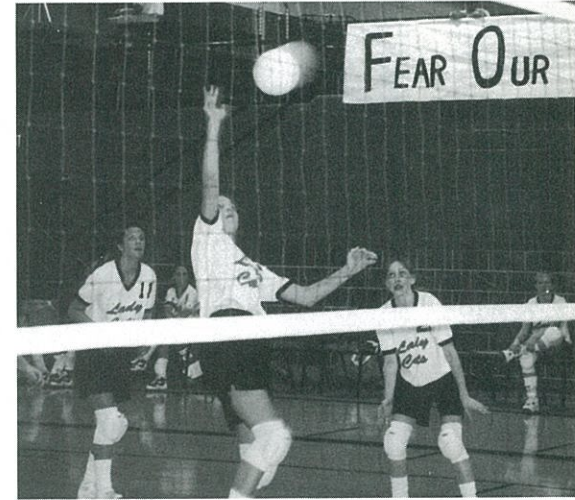

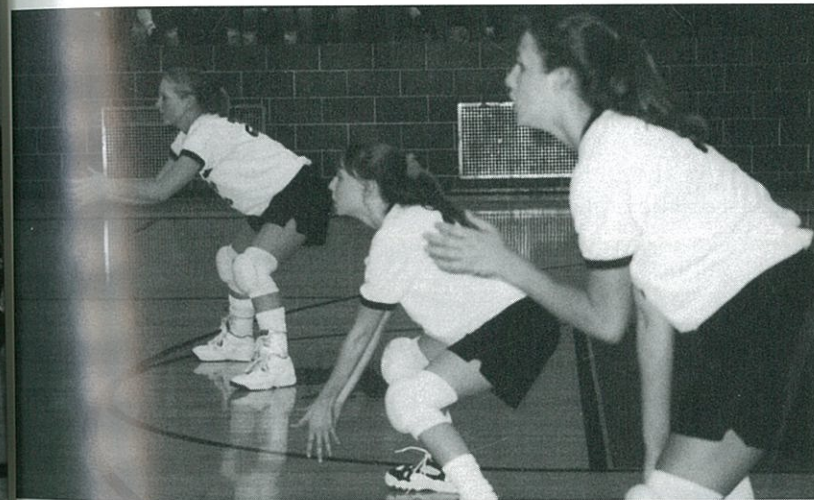

Junior Lisa Claborn, small in size but big at heart, shows nothing is impossible when it comes to her serving.

Junior Amber Robertson contributes with talent and height as she goes for another kill for the J.V.

Aaron Treadwell, Jennifer McGehee, and Amanda Taylor wait anxiously for a serve.

Sophomore Amanda Taylor goes for an awesome kill as her teammates, Jennifer McGehee and Amber Robertson cover their ground.

1997 Junior Varsity Team: back - Lisa Claborn, Jennifer McGehee, Aaron Treadwell and Maria Villalpando; front - Amber Robertson, Kenna Claborn, Coach Cheryl Baker, Amanda Taylor, and managers Greg Smith and Danni White

1998 Freshman Team: back - Alicia Sparks, Melissa Shackelford, Aimee Williamson, and Katie Shirey; Middle-Melissa Garcia, Samantha White, Coach Phil Swenson, Krystal Carrasco, and manager Bethany Williams; Kneeling- Jessica Barrett.