

Junior High Serves Up Champions

The junior high team stays busy throughout the fall, and are trained to put forth nothing but their best. They soon realize that the daily practices, weekly games, and all those out of town tournaments are worth the effort. The eighth grade volleyball team finished the season with an 8-4 record, while the seventh graders had an outstanding 12-2 record. These impressive players will experience the thrill of being high school athletes and will take on the challenge this involves proudly.

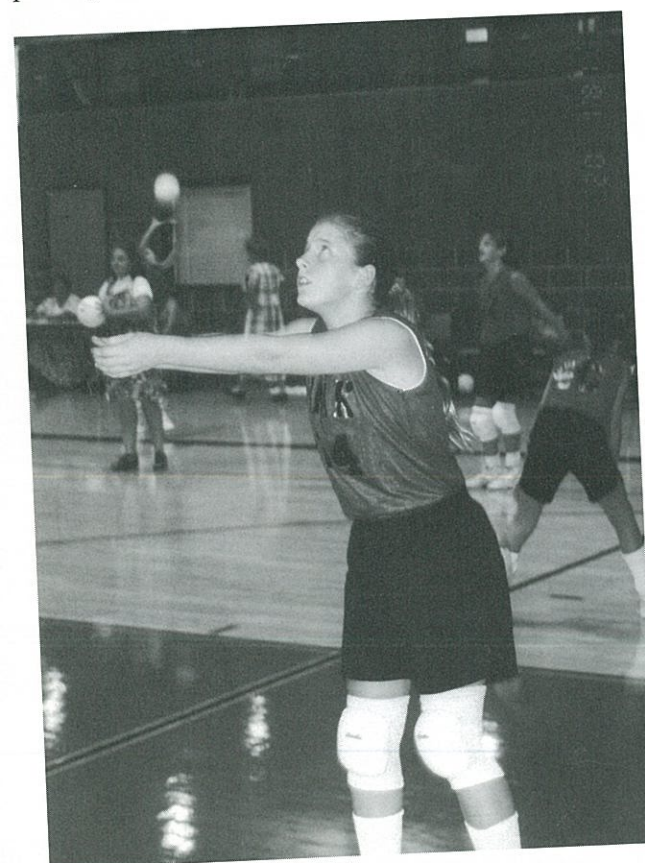

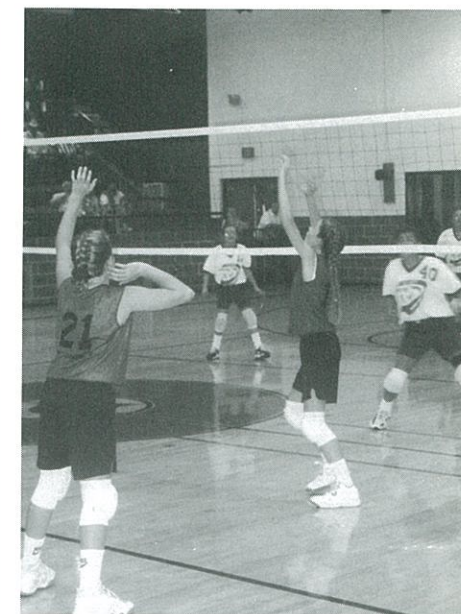

8th Grade Team: Ashley Abila, Marlayna Moore, Stephanie Cross, Keecha Carroll, Coach Paula Kay Lochart, Renee Compton, Donna Jones, Mallory Bryan, manager Kristin Sweazy and Lindsay Graham

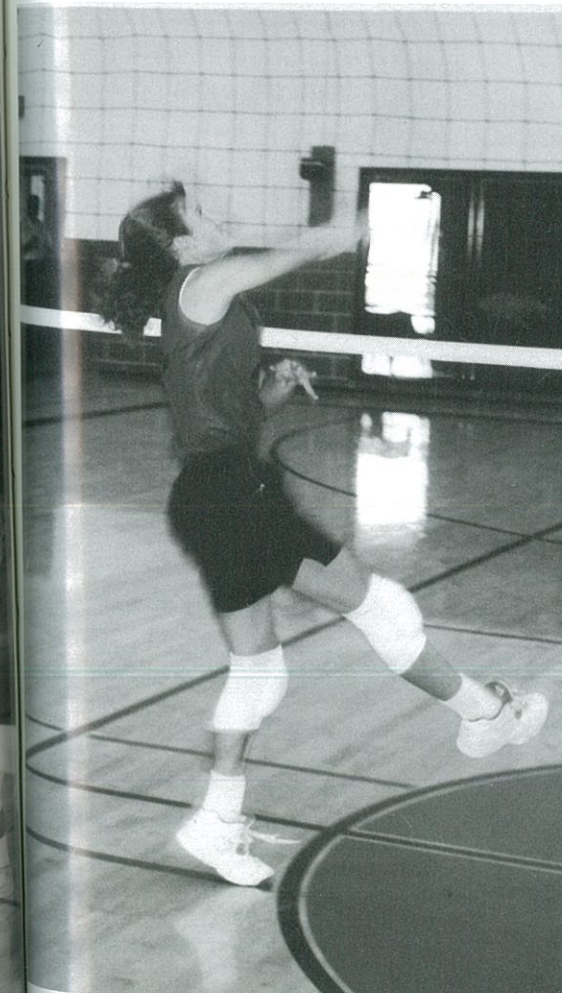

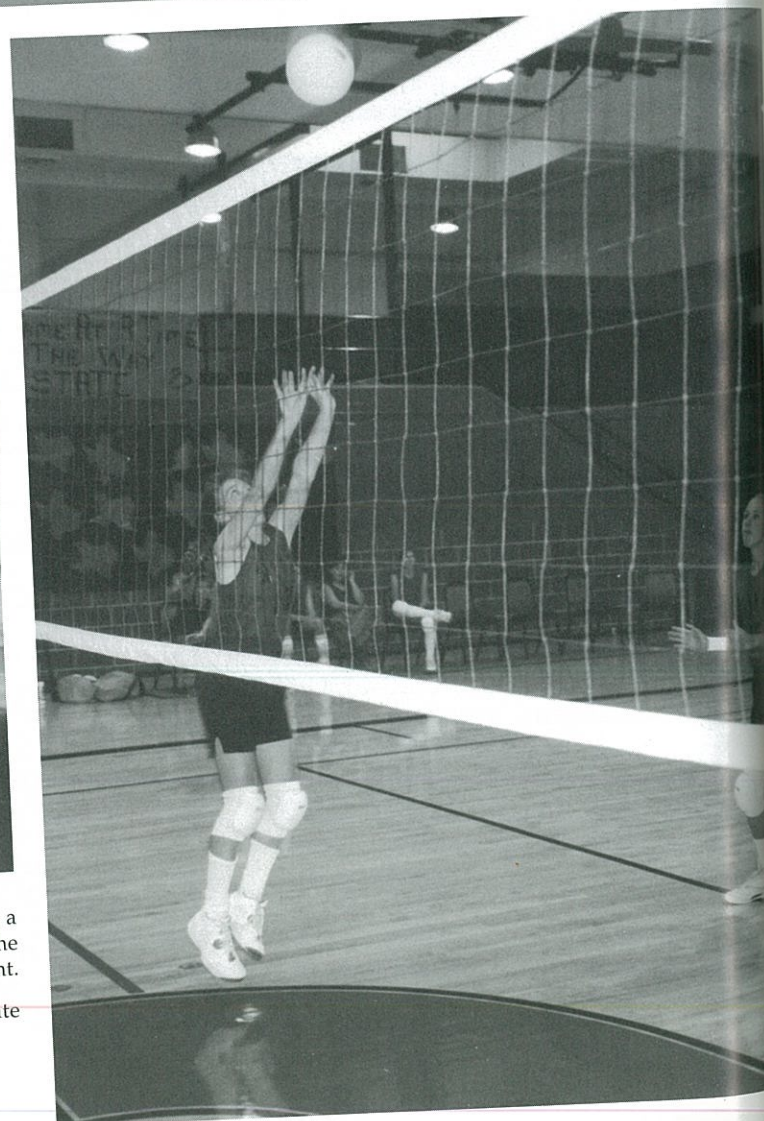

7th Grade Team: back - Monica Rushing, Coach Paula Kay Lockhart, Misty Golden and manager Kristin Sweazy; middle - Nikki Allgood, Lacy Morton, Ella Fernandes, Keli Gunn, Rhonda Bingham and Kendra Casteel; front - Kelli Benham, Dessie York and Jodi Graham

Seventh grader Ella Fernandes sets a ball up for Mallory Bryan allowing the Ladycats to dominate the court.

Seventh grader Keli Gunn develops her passing skills during a pregame warm-up. All the practice seemed to pay off, as the seventh graders took first place at the Ft. Stockton tournament.

Eighth grader Marlayna Moore sets a ball up for her teammate Renee Compton.

Eighth grader Donna Jones hits one over to the opponent's side. The eighth grade team won their final six matches including their district matches.

Eighth grader Mallory Bryan followed by her teammates, exhibits good sportsmanship after a 15-3, 15-2 victory over Buena Vista.
