

Track Teams Run and Jump to Victory

Coach Roger Martin's tennis team of seventh graders Kendy Casteel and Dessie York was small in number but big in determination and heart.

Seventh grader Kelli Benham practices her long distance running. Plenty of practice and conditioning paid off in a first place finish at the district track meet in the 2400m run.

The Junior High girls won the district track meet and in doing so scored 232 points. First place finishes at district came from Mallory Bryan in both discus and shot put, Kelli Benham in the 2400m run, Jodi Graham in the 400m run, Donna Jones in the 200m run, and Marlayna in the 1600m run. They also won the 400m relay with the team of Jones, Moore, Ashley Abila and Ella Fernandes and the 1600m relay with the team of Keli Gunn, Bryan, Abila and Fernandes.

The boys finished in third place at district and had first place finishes from Heath Morton in discus and shot put.

Gettin' Ready for the Big Time

Off-season conditioning drills prepare athletes for high school

Mallory Bryan won the discus competition in every track meet she entered during the spring. When the season ended, she took to the court to practice volleyball.

Cody Garratt and Emilio Marrufo along with the other eighth grade boys run dummy jump drills to improve agility and speed for next year's football season.

Stretch! Eighth graders limber up for next fall.

Marlayna Moore works on improving her volleyball setting abilities.
