

The Pieces Would Come Undone without the Support Staff!

After twenty-eight years of dedicated service, Mrs. Faye Eastman retired from her position on the cafeteria staff at mid-year. Mrs. Eastman, who is famous for her delicious desserts, was honored with a retirement party and received special gift from Mr. Maxie Watts on behalf of the school district.

"If you'll make them, I'll wear them." This is the arrangement Mrs. Eva Gunn made with talented crafter, Mrs. Peggy Adams, just before Thanksgiving concerning seasonal costumes. From then on, students coming to school at Mrs. Gunn's crosswalk and those entering buildings after break or lunch received a special greeting from a festive holiday visitor.
