

Abigail Azima, Dana McVay, Jolee Hanna and Doro Mendoza are among the early arrivals at the Lion's Club end-of-year Awards Banquet.

The seniors took time away from skiing while on their senior trip in Ruidoso, New Mexico, to visit the local Walmart.

Senior Casie Slaughter is joined by her parents, Debbie and Russ, and volleyball coaches Paula Kay Lockhart and Danna Flatt as she signs a letter of intent to play volleyball for Vernon Regional Junior College.

Jess Anne Fernandes takes her turn cutting down the net signifying the Lady Cats' district championship. Jess Anne received a full scholarship to play volleyball for West Texas A&M in Canyon.

Coach Sam Scott and the Wildcat football team received quite an honor by being featured on the cover of Texas Coach. Coach Scott and seniors Justin Hamm, Tim Martin and John Wingrove look over this special publication.

Early in the year we were plagued with news of the impeachment trial in Washington and dismal economic conditions here in the Permian Basin. Outside turmoil continued with a war in Kosovo and school violence around the nation. But outside disturbances did not deter students of WHS from keeping alive the tradition of outstanding achievement. This year there were numerous district and regional competitors, four trips to state meets in Austin, and school records broken. Many accomplishments came throughout the year. Even though some personal disappointments were experienced, these let downs merely added fuel to the burning desire for excellence exhibited by those who dare to live...

*Life
on the Edge of Time*

Closing