

LIFE ON THE EDGE OF TIME

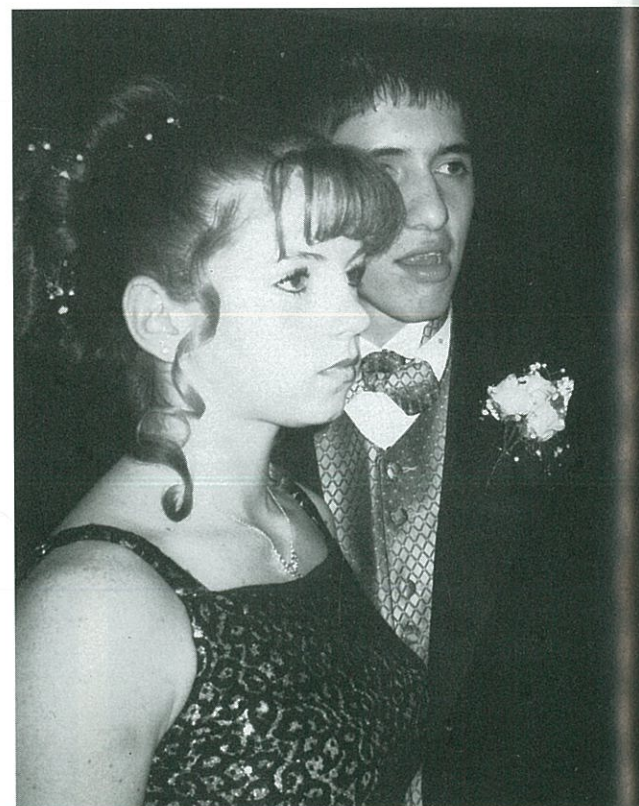

UIL spelling/vocabulary team members Marci and Mandi McCallister and Derrick York splash away the stress of being in Austin to defend their state championship.

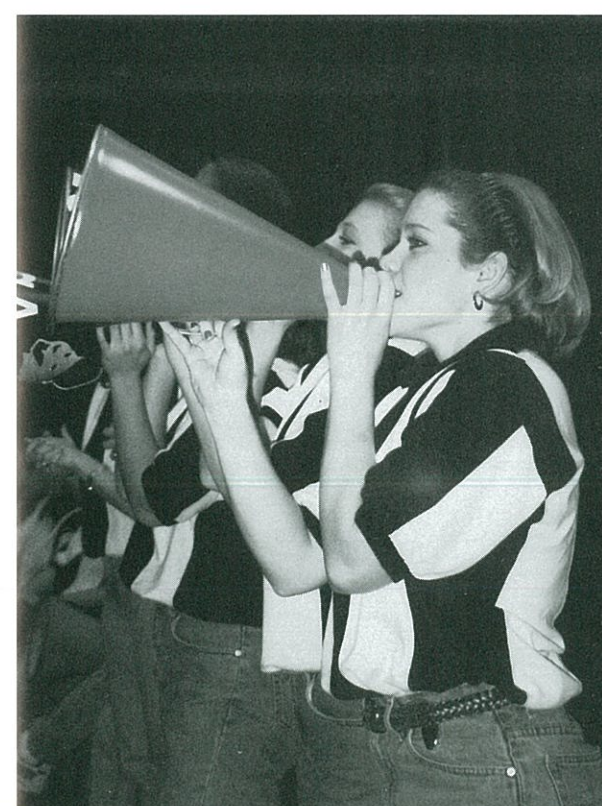

While at Joe's Crab Shack in Lubbock, sophomore Kathie Shirey seems to be trying to decide what to do with her order of crab legs. Kathie was at the restaurant with the UIL literary regional qualifiers on the evening before the competition in Levelland.

As tradition dictates, the last home game of each sport season is reserved for 'Parent Recognition Night.' Senior Tim Martin and his parents, Roger and Charlotte, are introduced prior to the opening tip-off of the final basketball game.

The junior-senior prom, a highlight of the spring semester, gives senior Michelle Harbin and sophomore Marco Enriquez a chance to dress-up for a night of dancing.

Excitement mounted all during the volleyball season, as the team made its way to state. During a play-off game send off, Geanna Baker and her teammates got to enjoy a pep-rally from the player seats.

Seniors Billy Jerome and Isaac Ojeda meet with Josten's representative, Mr. John Latimer, to order their long awaited caps and gowns.
