

Champions X Three

Track team wins third district championship of 98-99 school year for girls' athletics

Stretching out her legs before setting into the blocks, Jennifer Hawkins prepares for the 1600m relay.

Senior Jess Anne Fernandes closed out a brilliant high school athletic career at the State Track Meet where she placed third in the 400m run and fourth in high jump. She qualified for state four years in a row and captured three state medals in nine different contests. Meanwhile, Marlayna Moore, a freshman, began what has the chance of being a stellar high school career. She qualified for state in the 3200m run after wrenching out a second place finish at regional with a run of heartfelt determination.

With a lot of hard work and effort, freshman Mallory Bryan continuously improved her distances in the discus and finished her season in fifth place at regional with her best throw of 102'5".

Melissa Shackelford sets a school record at the area track meet in the 800m run with a time of 2:27.

Michelle Harbin wins the triple jump at the Wildcat Relay a leap of 30'3.75", her best leap of the season.

The 800m relay made up of Melissa Shackelford, Casie Slaughter, Michelle Harbin and Samantha White made it to regional with their best time of 1:44 at the area track meet.
