

Going Back in Time

Halftime show features songs from the '60s

A percussion cadence announces the arrival of the Baad Cat Band. Kelsey Brown and her booming bass drums keep the band in step.

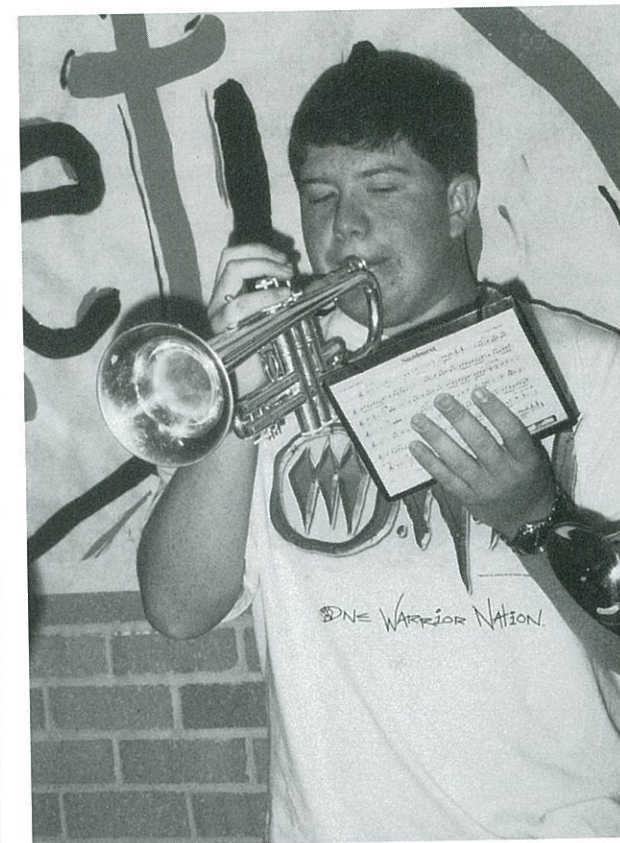

Eighth grader Bear Haring keeps his family tradition alive playing the tuba for the Baad Cat Band. He and assistant drum major Melissa Shackelford, with the clarinet, play during Homecoming pre-game activities.

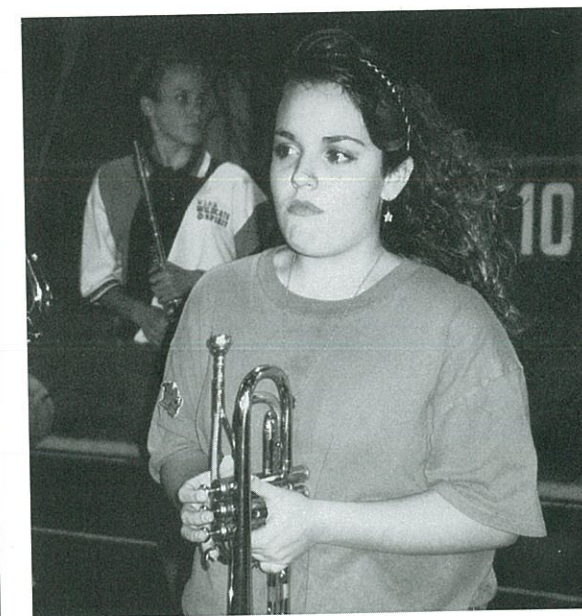

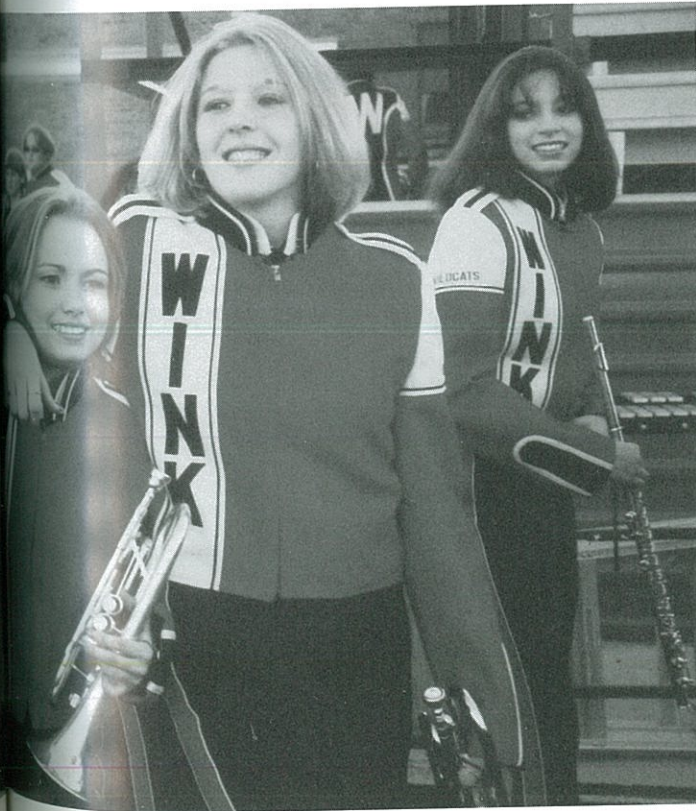

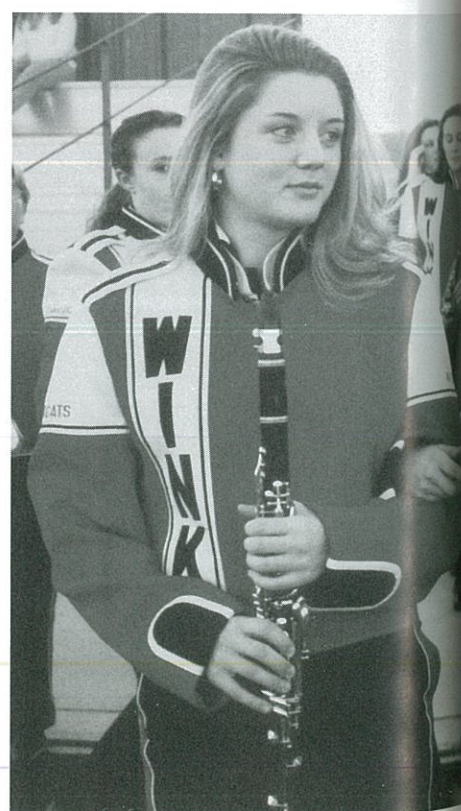

Sophomore Kevin Benham shows support for both his country and his school as he takes part in the pre-game festivities, which include playing the national anthem and school fight song on his trombone.

Senior Michael Berta provides musical ability and leadership for the Baad Cat Band. In his fifth year with the marching band, he fills the position of first cornet.

To keep uniforms clean and pressed, Baad Cat Band members, including Nikki Allgood, Kathie Shirey, and Jennifer McGehee, perform in regular school clothes during halftime of the game on the eve of the UIL Regional Marching Band Contest.

Being in the Baad Cat Band gives friends, like Kenna Claborn, Shannon Garratt, and Jennifer Hawkins, a time to get together and have fun. When it comes to friends these girls know that you have to keep the best ones close.

Britney Brooks, a freshman, focuses on an outstanding performance as she prepares to take to the field for a halftime show.
