

Time out; time in!

Come on Wildcats, let's win!

Cheerleaders spend hours in preparation to pump up the spirit of athletes and fans during the fall and winter. This time is squeezed into already tight schedules. Cheerleading is more than it may seem on the surface, including an immense amount of hard work!

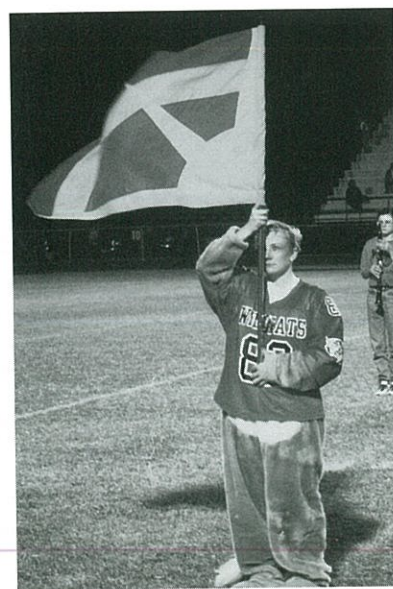

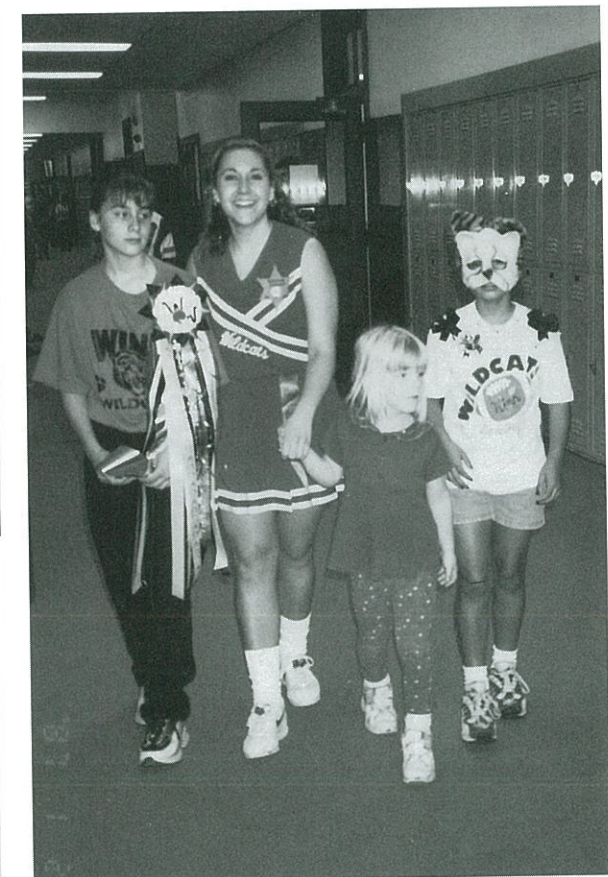

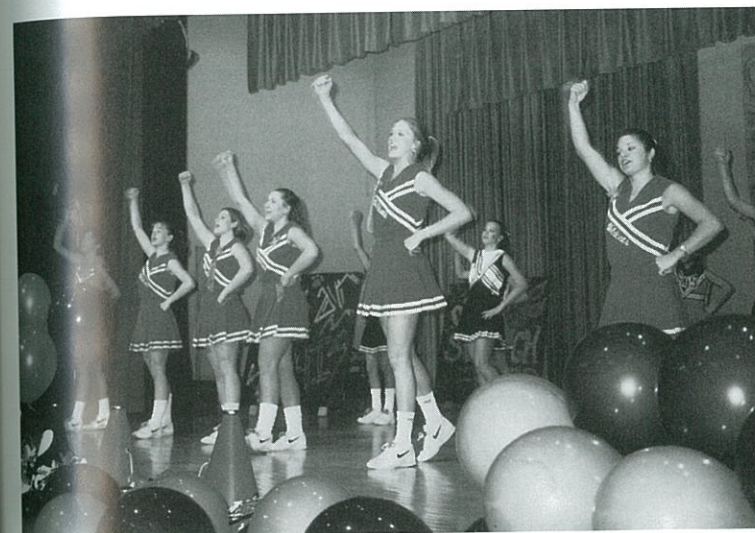

Enthusiasm abounds everytime the Wildcats come up with a big play. Varsity cheerleaders Amber Robertson, Geanna Baker, and Lisa Claborn cheer the Cats on after a large gain.

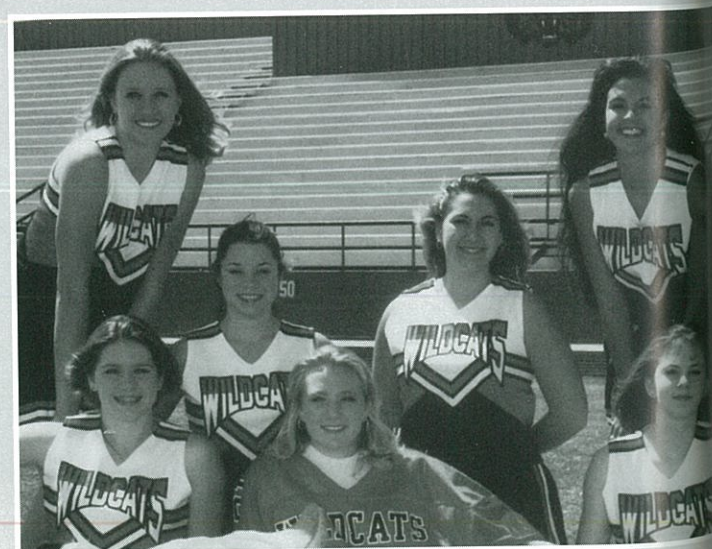

As the football guys are breaking from their huddle to start another play, Jess Anne Fernandes does a cheer to keep fans going.

"Wildcats come on let me hear you yell GO!" Michelle Harbin urges the crowd to get involved.

"Hey go Wildcats!" At homecoming the varsity, junior varsity, and junior high cheerleaders show their spirit during the pep rally to chant the football boys on for the big game.

Casie Slaughter (Willy the Wildcat) takes on another role during halftime when she performs as part of the flag corps with the Baad Cat Band.

1998-99 Varsity Cheerleaders: back - Jess Anne Fernandes, and Amber Robertson; front - Geanna Baker, Lisa Claborn, Erin Wolf, Michelle Harbin, and mascot Casie Slaughter.

1998-99 JV Cheerleaders: Jolee Hanna, Dana McVay, Melissa Garcia, and Abigail Azima.

The entire campus gets excited on game days. Erin Wolf guides elementary students Catrina Rich, Lexie Plunkett, and Jacque Carrasco through the high school halls chanting for the Wildcats on Homecoming Friday.
