The student council brought home a prestigious Sweepstakes Award from the State Convention. This special recognition comes as a result of having outstanding D.A.S.H., Pride & Patriotism, and Energy committees throughout the year.

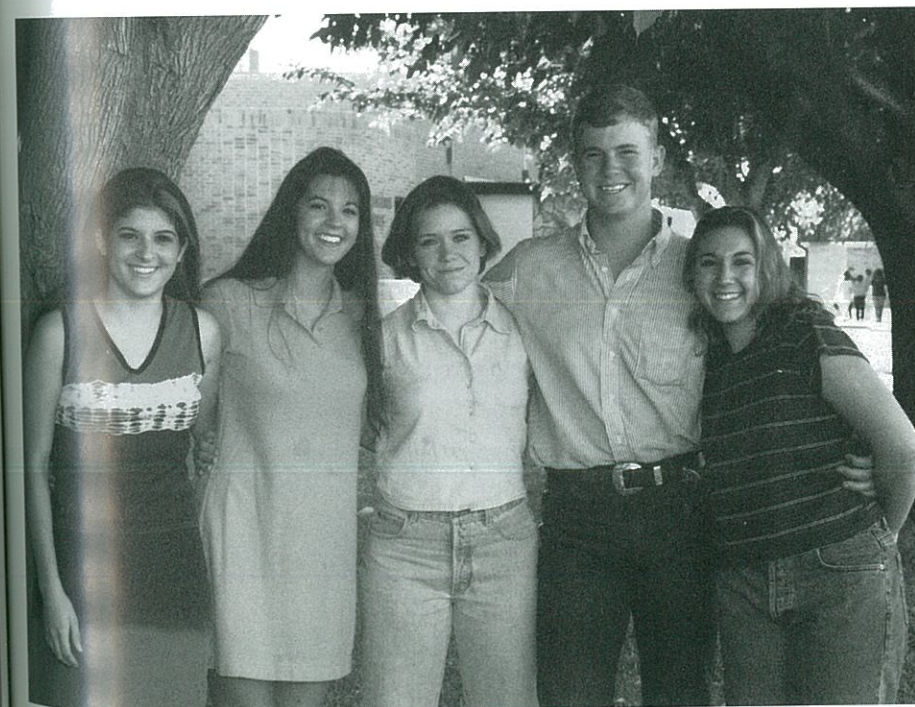

Seniors Erin Wolf, Dusty Loftin, Amber Robertson, Billy Jerome and junior Patrick Voyles wait patiently on the sidewalk before loading up the van for departure to Austin and the Texas Association of Student Councils Convention.

Two unidentified Grim Reapers return sophomore Kevin Benham to his class after his feigned death. The council sponsored a 'Grim Reaper' Day on Friday before prom to remind students of the dangers of drinking and driving.

Student Council President Geanna Baker stands at the podium each Monday during assembly to lead the student body in the Pledge of Allegiance and to make announcements.

As a senior, Geanna finishes the last of six years as a council member with the 1998-99 school year.

During this time she has been a tireless promoter of council activities and has held an office each of her high school years.

In acknowledgement of her long and distinguished council career, Geanna was awarded a $500 scholarship at the District Student Council Convention.
