Steaven Grubbs learns about the history of journalism in the United States, or maybe he's just getting caught up on U.S. history homework.

Lisa Claborn, April Tinkler and Shannon Garratt align pictures and write descriptive captions.

Misty Warren and Crystal Smith search for the perfect picture.

Completing a publication such as the '99 Wildcat takes hours and hours plus plenty of dedication. The 1998-99 staff gave their time and best effort in making this yearbook one of quality.
