

Ball handler Terry Rich quickly moves the ball down court for the seventh grade team.

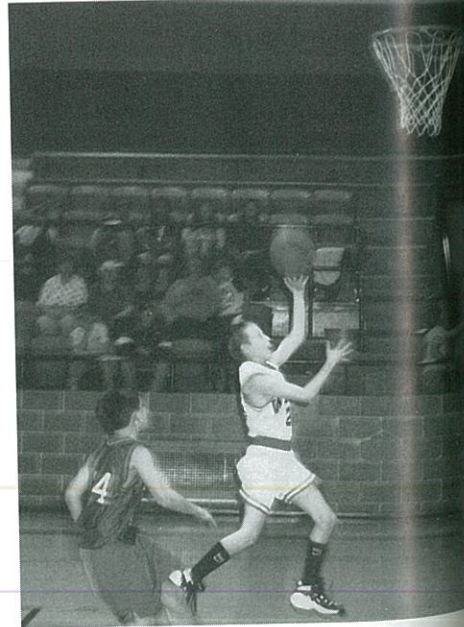

O'Ryan White goes high to pass over a Midland Christian player to find a team member down low.

Seventh grader Garrett Wolf watches closely for an open teammate to receive his in-bound pass.

Racing down the court to stay ahead of his opponents, Clay Haws goes up for a strong lay-up.

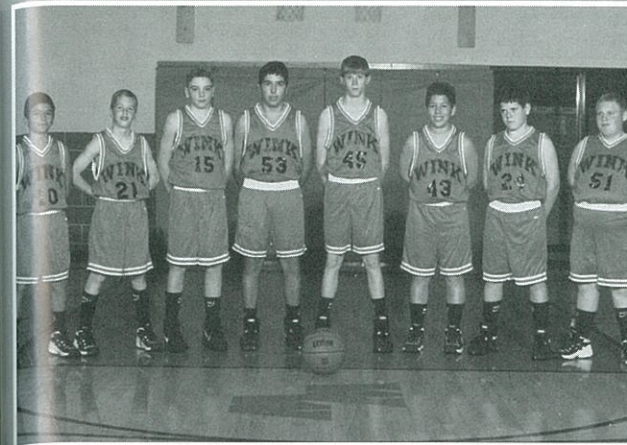

Hoop It Up! Winning or Losing, Young Cats Give Their All

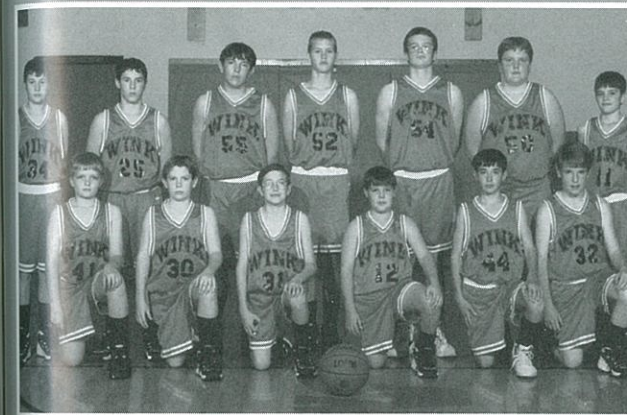

In their first year of Wildcat basketball, the seventh grade team posted an outstanding record of 8-2. In doing so, they won the seventh grade division of the Wink Junior High Tournament and Consolation at the Kermit Tournament.

Even though the eighth graders' season was a disappointment, especially on paper, their record of 1-9 leaves more than meets the eye. The team played every game with heart, determination and a never-say die attitude. The season is one each player can look back upon and know he did his best.

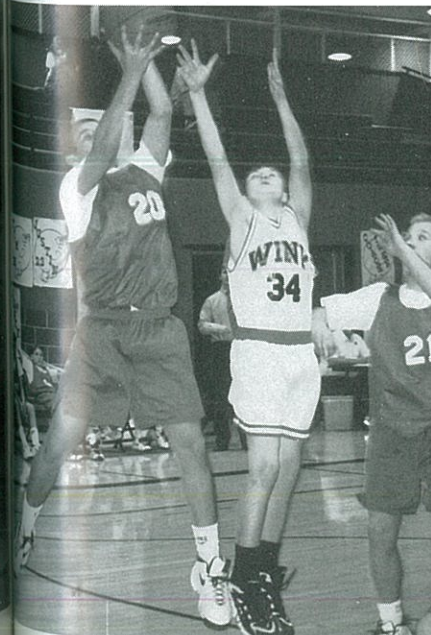

During a time out, Coach Roger Martin goes over team plays with the seventh graders in hopes of increasing their lead.

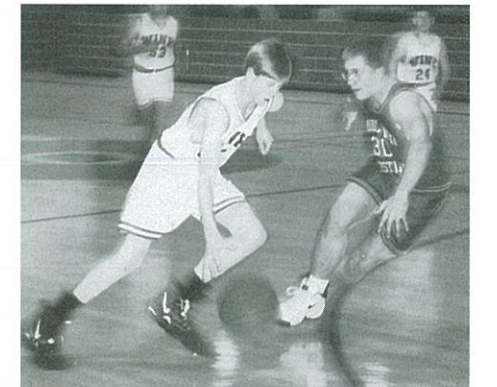

Eighth Grade Boys Team: l-r Rudy Armendariz, Clay Haws, Bear Haring, Raudel Villalpando, Justin Jamison, Erick Barrandey, O'Ryan White and Cory Calaway

Seventh Grade Boys Team: back - Daniel Shirey, Terry Rich, T.J. Gonzales, Brandon Wolfe, Gil Shackelford, Tyrel Brown and Zach Hanna; front - Marc Rainwater, Daniel Gray, Garrett Wolf, Scott Rossel, Dustin Inskeep and Kenny Denmon - not pictured Austin Robertson

After a missed shot, Daniel Shirey goes high to tip the ball from his opponent.

Eighth grader Justin Jamison drives around his opponent on the way for a lay-up.

Seventh grader Zach Hanna curves into the lane looking for an open teammate.