

The Beat Goes On . . .

Leadership Being a part of the Wildcat Band helps students develop more Stamina than their musical talents. Band members learn life skills they will Dedication use long past their days at WHS.

1999-2000 Flag Corps and Drum Major

Rebekah Ancira, Kenna Claborn, Jolee Hanna, Angela Stephens, Amanda Taylor, Mallory Bryan, and Melissa Garcia.

My involvement in band has given me many wonderful experiences. A few unhappy times have been sprinkled in, but overall, being a part of the Wildcat Band has been the most enjoyable part of my years at WHS. Band membership has opened up opportunities and given me the pleasure of sharing with others what I love the most MUSIC.

*~Angela Stephens
 1999-2000 Drum major*

Groups earn Division I Ratings at UIL Solo & Ensemble Contest

Flute Trio

Jessica Ancira, Kelli Benham and Angela Stephens

Tuba/Euphonium Quartet

Chris McCalib, Jeremy Cross, Bear Haring and Sam Haring

1999-2000 Band Council Members

Twila Massey, Kelli Benham, Angela Stephens,
 Reva Hernandez, April Underwood, John Henderson,
 Sam Haring and Marco Enriquez

Before going to the UIL Concert and Sightreading Contest, band members practice in the auditorium to get a true feel of being on stage.

