

At the close of football off-season drills and a quick track work-out, junior Clayton Hawkins goes to the tennis courts to practice for the district tennis meet.

The varsity girls basketball team celebrates winning their bi-district against Sierra Blanca. The girls posted a record of 18-6 under Coach Kent Josselet.

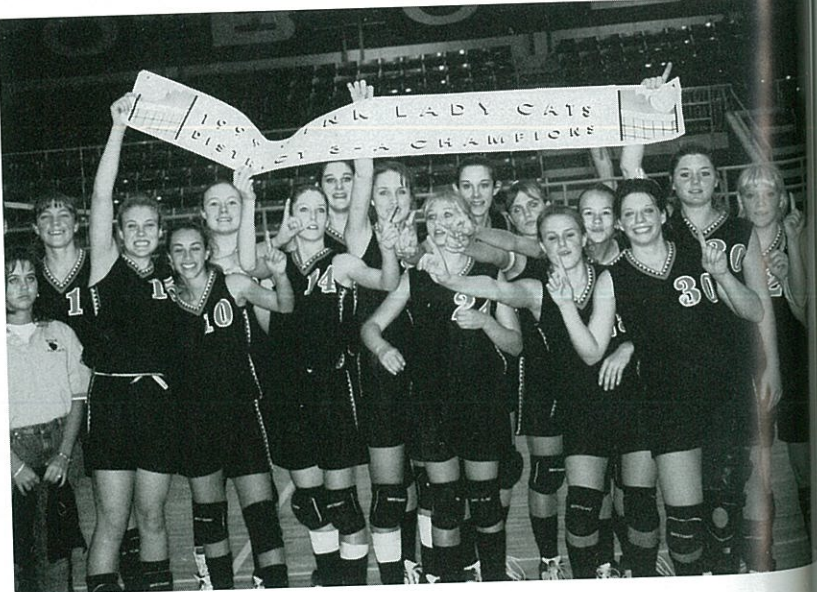

Win or lose . . . it's great to be a Wildcat! Wildcat pride stays intact regardless of the outcome of the game. Respect for the team and their hard fought effort is shown with the playing of the school fight song at the end of each varsity football game.

On Basketball Parents Appreciation Night, senior Shane Jones escorts her parents, Richard and Liz Jones. Shane, known for her hustle on the court in both basketball and volleyball, was named to both the All-Permian Basin and All-West Texas volleyball teams.

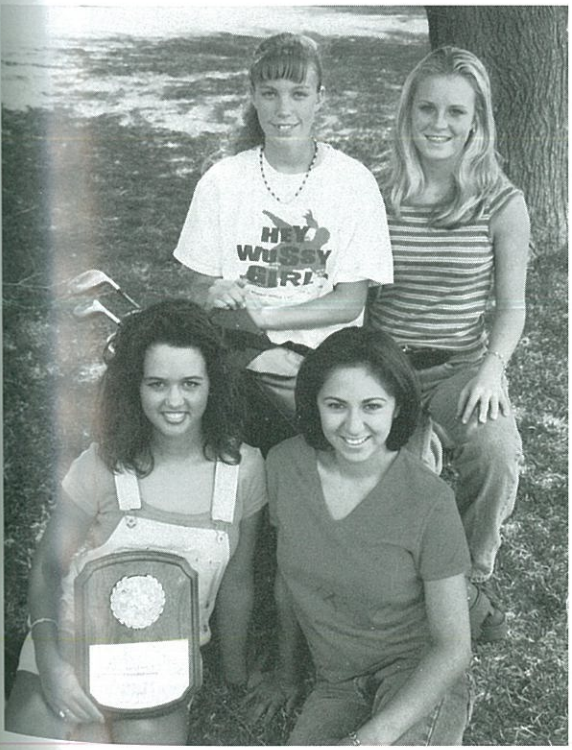

Athletics * Athletics * Athletics * Athletics

- Volleyball
- Football
- Cross Country
- Girls Basketball
- Boys Basketball
- Girls Track
- Boys Track
- Golf
- Tennis

The volleyball team celebrates repeating as outright district champions. Pictured (l-r): Ryan Thomas, Marlayna Moore, Mallory Bryan, Ashley Abila, Kathie Shirey, Ella Fernandez, Marci McCallister, Amanda Taylor, Lacy Morton, Mandi McCallister, Lindsay Graham, Jo Graham, Kelli Benham, Shane Jones, Kenna Claborn and April Tinkler

Multi-sport athlete Jennifer Hawkins heads to the field house to cool down before her next event at the Wildcat Relays. In late spring Jennifer learned of her selection to the all-state team of the Texas Basketball Magazine.

The girls golf team of Marlayna Moore, Brandi Taylor, Ryan Thomas and Melissa Garcia qualified for regional by winning the district golf title for the first time since 1987. Ryan Thomas placed first in the medalist race with scores of 91 and 95. The team began the second round of the regional tournament in eleventh place but ended the day in fifth.