

Even in a losing season, the Wildcats pulled together and never put individual glory ahead of teamwork. The 'Cats endured a daunting line-up of 2A and 3A schools during pre-district and used the experience gained to close out the year on a positive note.

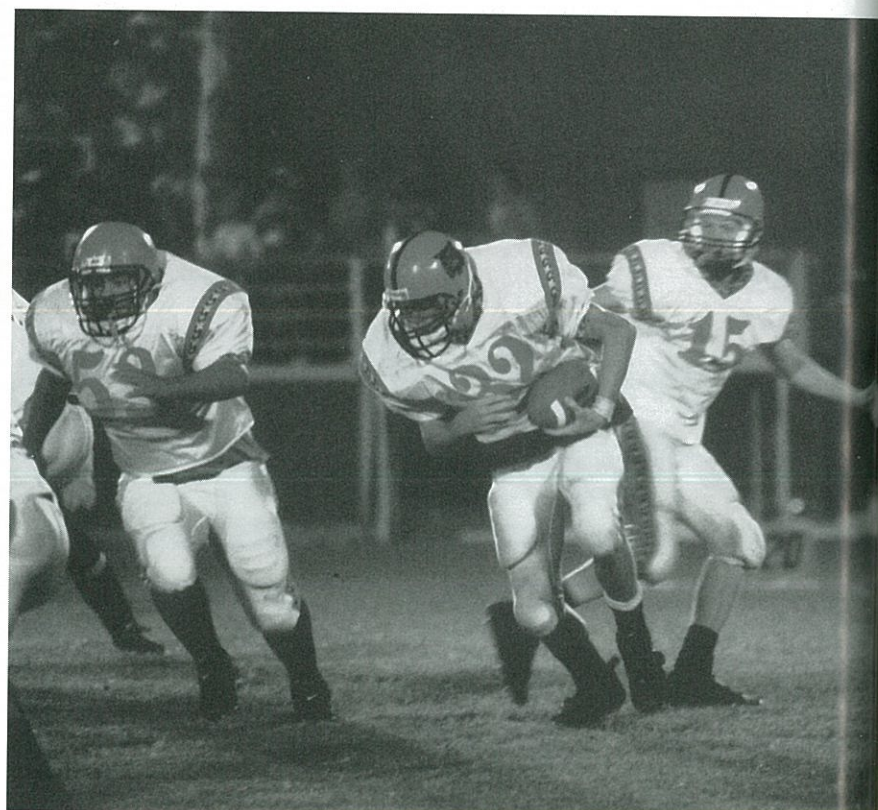

Senior Patrick Voyles breaks through the line to bring down Iraan's quarterback. Patrick completed his third year of varsity football.

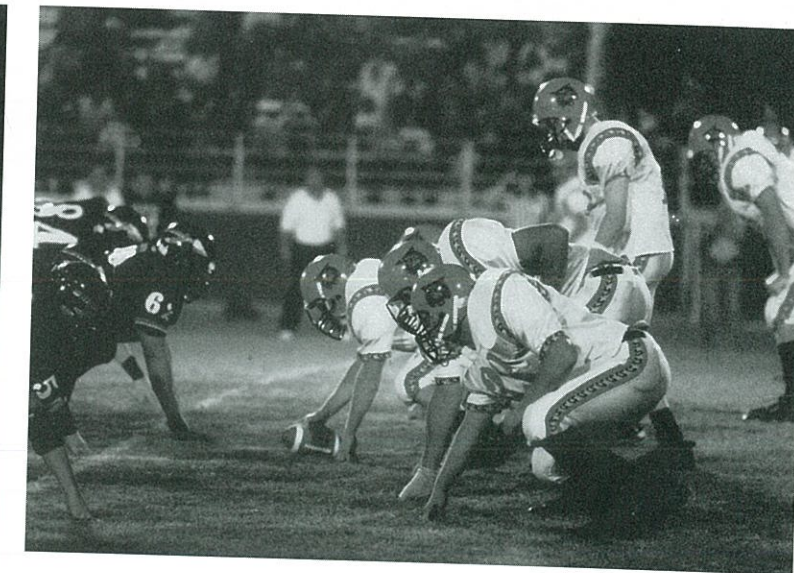

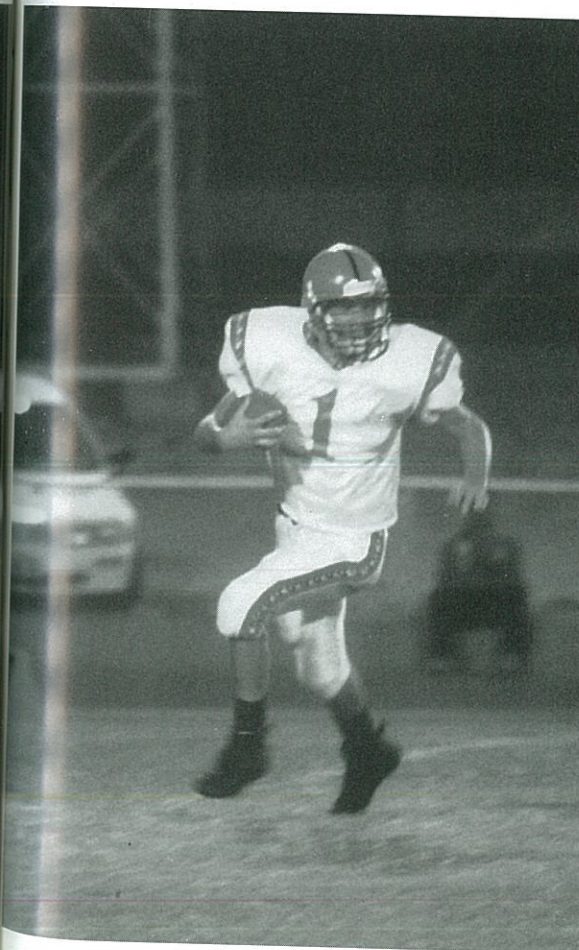

John Henderson, Ben McGehee and Derek Erskine join forces to bring a Coahoma Bulldog to a crashing halt.

Junior Marco Enriquez rushes downfield. For the year, Marco averaged 6.8 yards on eighty-three carries and scored six touchdowns.

The Wildcats' leading rusher, Weldon Thompson, takes the ball from quarterback Ben McGehee. Weldon follows the blocking of sophomore Michael Renteria. Weldon accumulated 1050 yards with eight touchdowns on 188 carries.

Quarterback Ben McGehee calls for the ball from center W.E. Tinkler while the line waits to fire off the ball. The offensive linemen, most doing double duty on the defensive line, blocked for an accumulated 2153 yards rushing. The Wildcats allowed only 1826 rushing yards.

After catching a pass, Jared Green rushes for extra yardage. Jared closed out his senior year with 325 receiving yards. He also served as punter averaging 36.97 yards per punt.