After twenty-eight years of teaching either kindergarten or third grade at Wink Elementary School, Mrs. Joan Eggleston retires at the end of the 1999-2000 school year. Mrs. Eggleston says she will miss the wonderful kids of Wink Elementary but looks forward to traveling and spending time with her grandchildren. "The freedom of being able to do whatever comes along on the spur-of-the-moment will be nice," Mrs. Eggleston said.

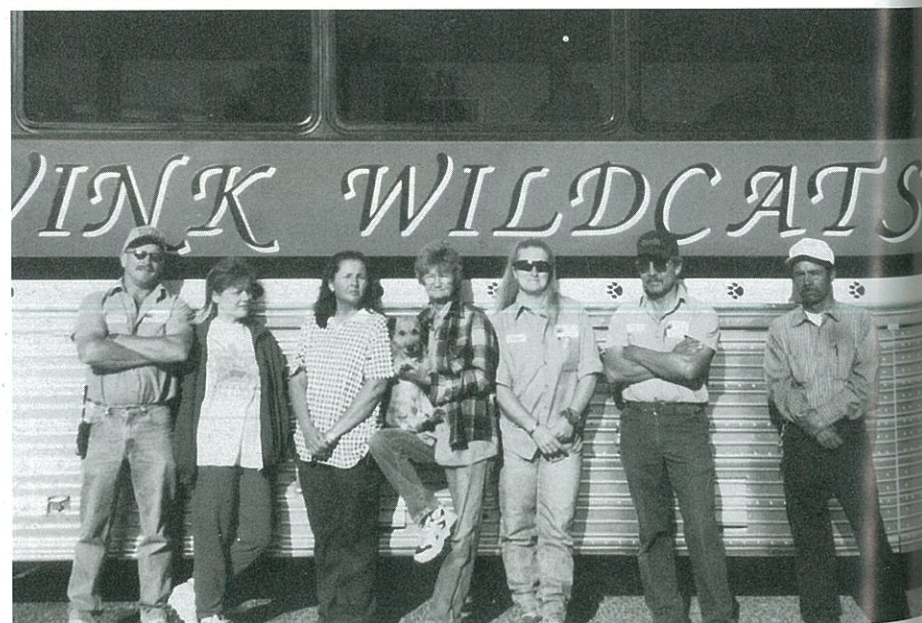

Friends throughout the school year, Andra Kerley, Trinity Walker, Kalee Josselet and Caleb Martinez have fun at a high school basketball game.
