

A study
 Day
work in the play life of friends
 Wildcats

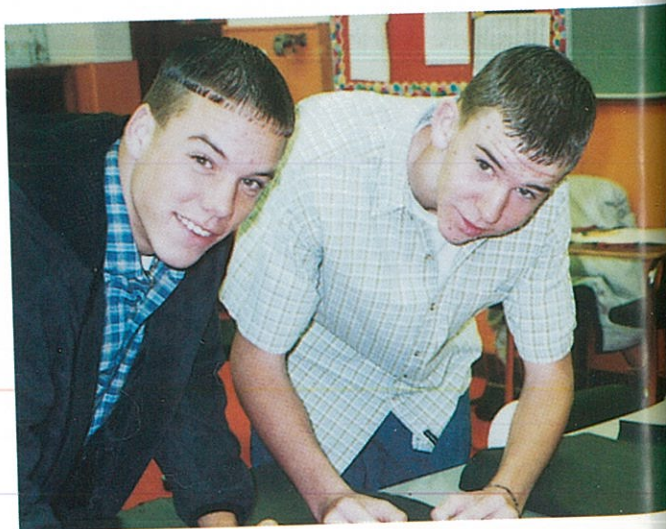

Student Council President Kevin Benham brings news of the day via the intercom each morning Tuesday through Friday and at the assembly on Mondays.

Cheerleaders Dessie York and Dana McVay along with Willy the Wildcat (Lindsay Graham) have fun ending their day cheering at a varsity basketball game.

Freshmen Daniel Gray and Stephanie Burrows work to finish an assignment in Ms. Dodd's first period speech class.

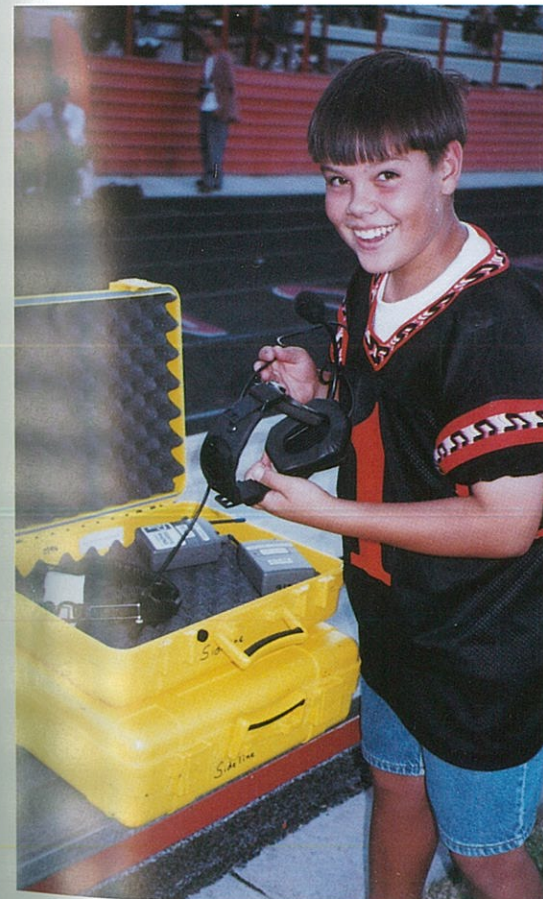

Seniors Eathan Hamm and Clayton Hawkins use their student aide period to construct a sign to support the Lady Cat volleyball team.

In journalism class, junior Jessica Smith concentrates on completing a mock ladder diagram during planning stages for the 2001 Wildcat.

Sophomores Courtney Redwine and Kelli Benham arrive at school at 7 a.m. to pour over accumulated evidence as they prepare their case for UIL C-X debate.

Hard work brings success to the Lady Cat volleyball team. This means hours and hours spent in the gym for team members including Jodi Graham and Mallory Bryan.

In addition to tending to coaches' and players' needs during afternoon practice sessions, Scott Rossell, equipment manager for the Wildcat football team, is on the sideline well before kick-off on Friday nights getting things ready for the game.

Yearbook photographer Keecha Carroll roams the campus looking for interesting photo opportunities.