

Lacy Morton shoots a three-pointer in pre-game warm up. Morton received Honorable Mention out of District 8A.

Freshman Mary Walker, opens up big on offense hoping to receive the ball. Walker was a big impact on offense but also on defense due to her height and her ability to be physical.

JV Finish 13-5

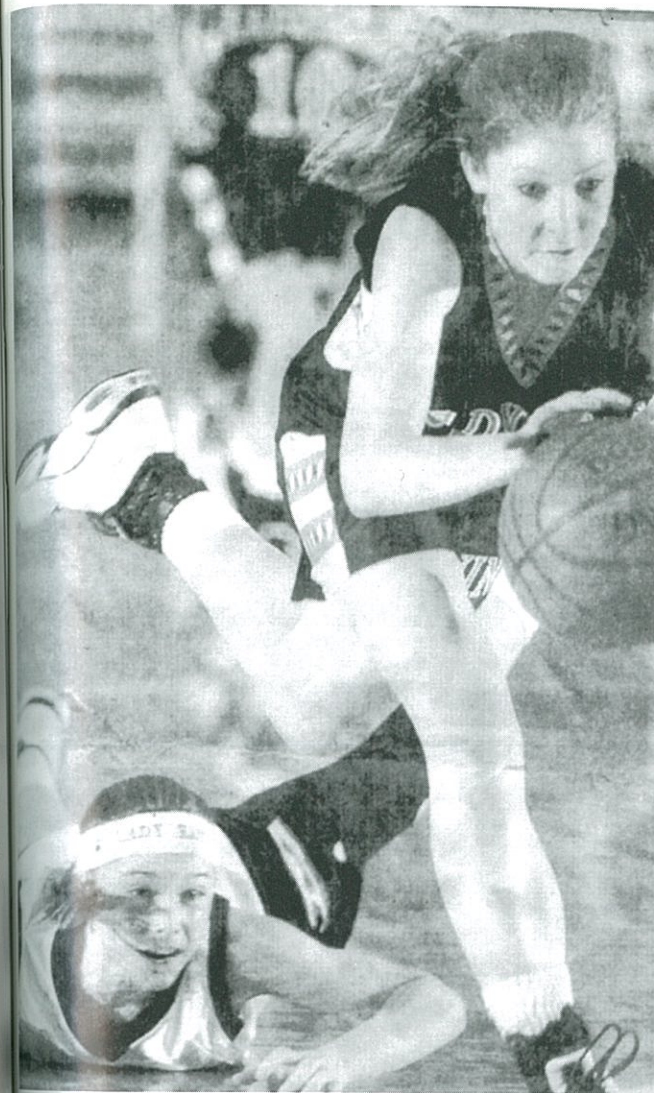

Junior Varsity Basketball Team: Back - Coach Dana Flatt; middle - Dessie York, Courtney Redwine, Keli Gunn; front - Nikki Allgood, Brelee Drake, Ashley Canon, Brandi Taylor and Misty Golden

Freshmen Post 12-0 Record

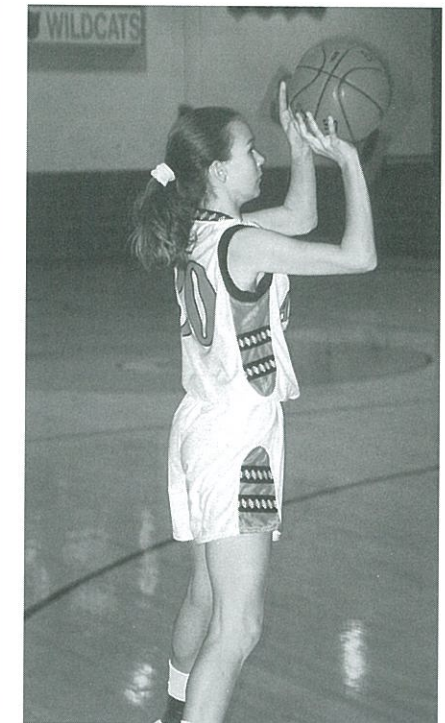

Freshmen Basketball Team: back - Coach Dana Flatt, Sierra Ancira, Jennifer Adams, Mary Walker, Courtney Redwine; front - Ashley Dodd, Robyn Thomas, Dallas Thomas and Jessica Garcia

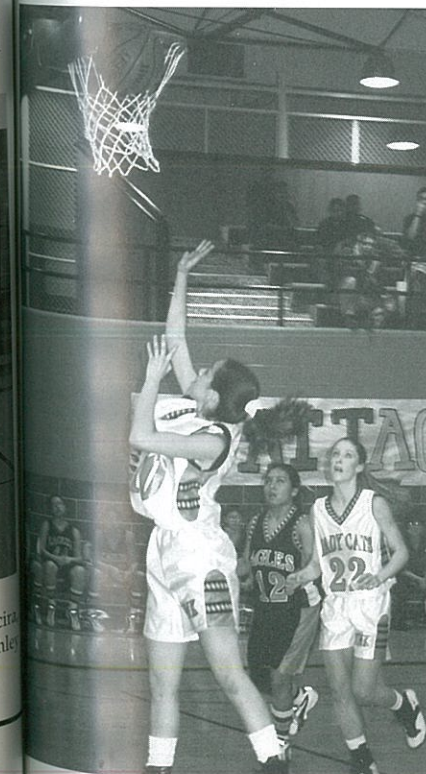

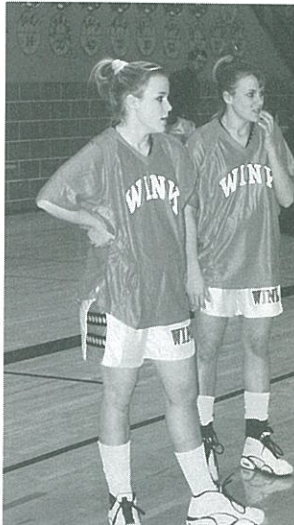

District MVP Ella Fernandes, a sophomore, attempts to regain the lead by stealing the ball from a Garden City Bearkat during the bi-district championship game. In this hard fought showdown, the Lady Cats battled through triple overtime before falling to the Garden City team 48-56.

During the season, Kelli Benham perfected a little jump shot that helped her gain first team all-district honors. Kelli also racked up eighteen points in one game with six three-point shots.

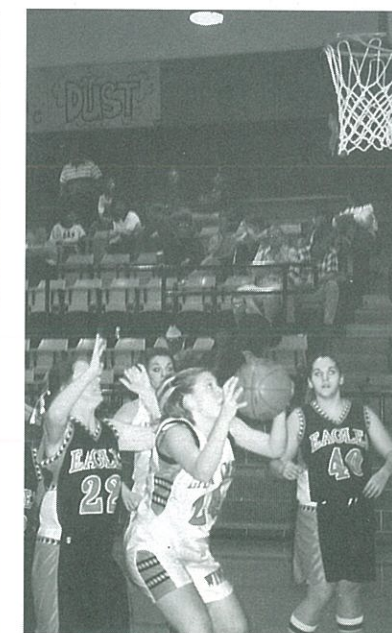

Photo of Ella Fernandes by Cori Takemoto Williams - Odessa American

'Double Trouble' Twins Lindsay and Jodi Graham, give the Lady Cats an advantage over opponents through their team effort and ability to work together.

Junior Ashley Abila attempts a lay up while playing the Sanderson Lady Eagles. On the season Abila averaged 9.6 points a game.

Lady Cats huddle to prepare for the next quarter during a district game against Fort Hancock.

Junior Mallory Bryan eyes the basket during a game against Sanderson. Before a knee injury suffered during the Wink Tournament ended her season, Mallory was averaging 10 points per game and pulling down an average of 9.3 rebounds.