

The top students of the Class of '01, Derrick York and Kevin Benham, have plenty of intelligence, but their class ranking takes perseverance and plenty of study time.

Senior Adrienne Schubert enjoys working with computers, and frequently visits her favorite web-site, bored.com.

James Stoddard relaxes by playing the piano, and his friends and family appreciate the entertainment he provides.

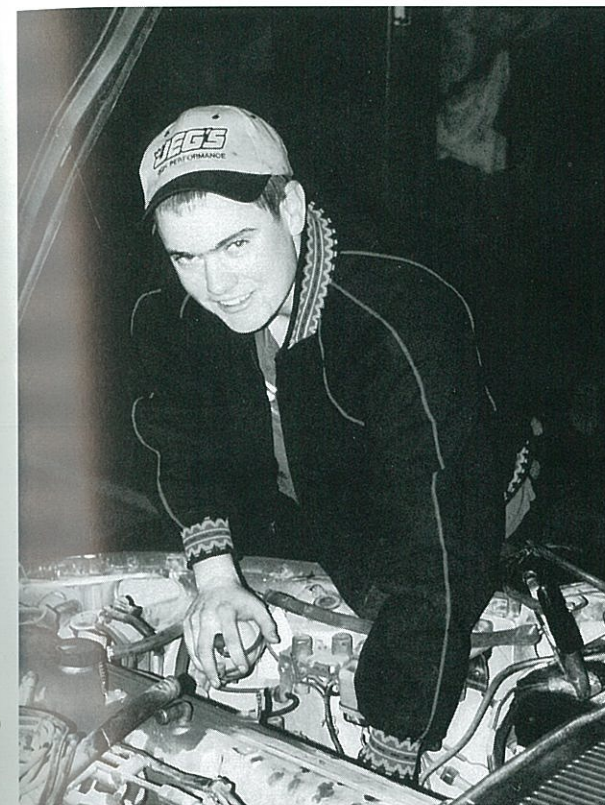

- Radio Station . . . . . 96.1
- Place to Eat . . . . . Rosa's
- Candy Bar . . . . . Snickers
- Make of Car . . . . . Chevy
- Soft Drink . . . . . Dr Pepper
- Magazine . . . . . Seventeen
- TV Show . . . . . Friends
- Song . . . . . It Wasn't Me
- Weekend curfew . . . midnight
- Weekly expenditures . . . $20

Favorites based on results of Wildcat Staff survey.

WHASUP?

Late fall yearbook staff survey reveals how Wildcats spend their

Senior Derek Rippe tunes up a car in his favorite class, auto tech.

After completing a day of school, seniors Larry Hernandez and Timothy Gonzales are ready to head to Allsups for an afternoon snack in Larry's truck.

Senior Derek Erskine participates in high school rodeo events and 4-H activities on many week-ends after football season.

Sophomore Misty Golden participates in athletics and UIL speaking events and one-act play. She squeezes in extra practice on her poetry interpretation pieces during morning break.

Senior Chelsea Shirley returned to WHS after attending Littlefield High School for the past few years. She keeps up with friends at both schools via the telephone.