

Winning again, and again

7th grade wins Seminole and Monahans tournaments; 8th grade takes consolation in each

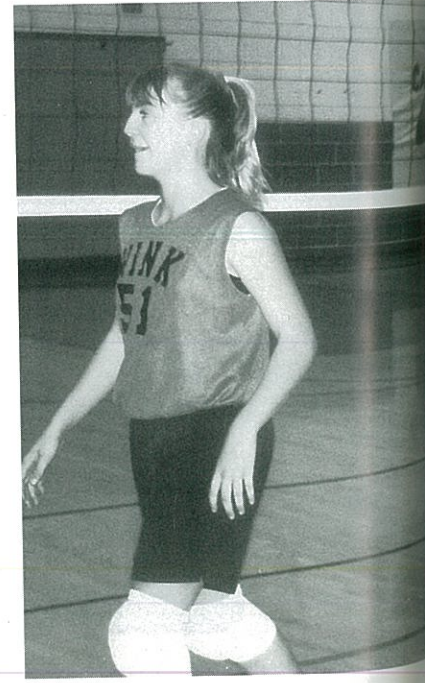

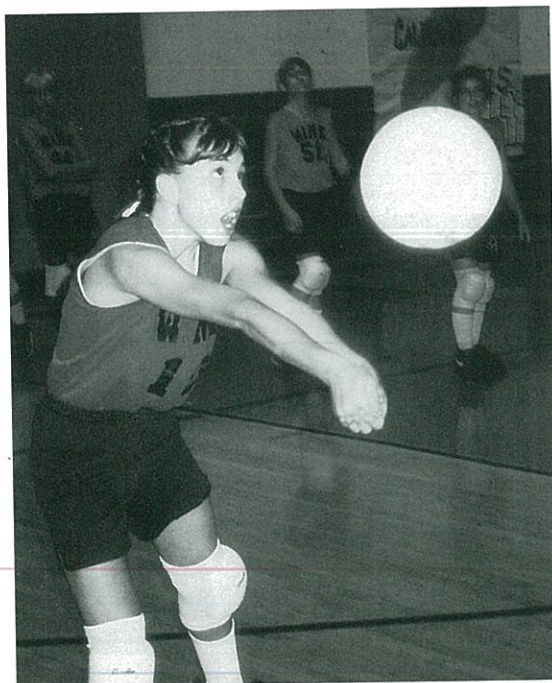

Even though new to the game of volleyball, Victoria Ruiz has learned the importance of keeping her eye on the ball for successful digs.

Seventh grader, Lara Morton, quickly adapted to the rigors of competitive volleyball and displays experienced form while bumping the ball.

In a show of good sportsmanship, a victorious seventh grade team, led by Cayla Slaughter followed by Hope Martinez, Lara Morton and Jessica Youngblood, salute their opponents at the close of a hard fought match.

Eighth graders including Lacy Shackelford (20), Catrina Rich (52) and Andrea Ojeda huddle before the beginning set of a match.
